Heavy Air Attacks On Japanese Bases

SOVIET OPENS OFFENSIVE

Savage Air Raids On Japanese Bases In New Guinea Area

By LEE VAN ATTA
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

GEN. MacARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS, In Australia, Sept. 18.—Savage air raids by Flying Fortresses and Allied bombers blasted three Japanese bases in the New Guinea area, a communique from Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters reported today as Australian infantrymen fought off the enemy drive on Port Moresby.

The heaviest attack was directed against the Japanese supply station at Buna, on the north coast of the eastern tip of New Guinea, 150 miles from Port Moresby.

Allied fighters poured 35,000 rounds of machine gun and cannon shells into the enemy positions, setting ablaze fuel dumps and supplies and destroying at least 15 landing barges.

Devastating Attacks

Other bomber squadrons swooped over New Britain island, east of New Guinea, in devastating attacks on the Japanese bases at Rabaul and Gasmata.

Fires started at Buna were visible for 35 miles, the communique stated.

Unfavorable weather prevented full observation of the results of the bombing of Gasmata, on the south shore of New Britain island.

Rabaul was pounded in a night attack by American Flying Fortress bombers. A number of grounded enemy aircraft were destroyed in the dispersal areas surrounding the air field, and several large fires were started.

The port was rocked by a number of mighty explosions, indicating that direct hits had been scored on ammunition dumps and fuel supplies.

Following the night attack a single Allied bomber raided Rabaul in the early morning.

Only weak retaliation was offered by the Japanese. One enemy bomber made an ineffective hit-and-run attack on Port Moresby. Damage was reported as slight.

Veterans Meet At Kansas City

National Legion Convention To Open On Saturday—Several Vital Issues

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 18.—Graying and somewhat portly veterans of World War No. 1 poured into Kansas City today to attend the 24th annual convention of the American Legion which opens tomorrow.

Although the city took on new life and was abustle with activity there was an undercurrent of seriousness on the eve of this convention, due to the war. About 1,500 delegates are attending, the largest number of any legion convention. They represent, 1,130,000 organized veterans of the first World War.

Two Leading Issues

At least two important issues confronted the delegates:

1. The controversial question of opening the American Legion membership to the millions of service men who will emerge from the present war.

2. Resistance of any movement to again bring back prohibition.

Other matters to be considered included the suggestion that the dues of the 100,000 Legionnaires now in service be waived for the duration and the problem of what action to take on electing officers if no convention is held next year.

The No. 1 issue, however, apparently was the question of opening up the legion membership to the present fighting men of the armed forces. Inasmuch as millions of men will fight for Uncle Sam in this war, their inclusion would make the legion the most powerful American organization in the country.

President And 'Farm Bloc' In Price Battle

By WILLIAM S. NEAL
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—President Roosevelt today headed into a major battle with the congressional "farm bloc" over his opposition to include farm labor costs in determining parity prices for agricultural products.

The issue was put before the senate banking committee by Sen. Bankhead (D) Ala., with "farm bloc" members predicting that the fight will be carried into both the senate and house if the committee rejects it.

The whole anti-inflation program, it appeared, will provide both wage

Pacific Battle Nears Climax

(International News Service)

LONDON, Sept. 18.—Events in the southwest Pacific are moving swiftly toward a climax, the London Evening Star reported in a special dispatch from Sydney today.

Japan is so deeply committed that notwithstanding her latest reverses at Guadalcanal in the Solomons, she is bound to try to strike very soon both there and elsewhere, the dispatch said.

It can be said, the Star continued, that the Allied position is not nearly as bad as it might seem from the statements of many commentators in the United States and Great Britain.

The Star quoted Major General George C. Kenny, new air force commander in Australia, as saying:

"If anybody thinks we don't have a fight on our hands over here they had better turn over and dream on the other side. Nobody's kidding me about this show. It's a fight but I think we've got the fighters here to do the job."

When the money was not forthcoming in 12 hours, she called and said they had been released.

Another Large Group Of Yanks Lands In Britain

(International News Service)

LONDON, Sept. 18.—The arrival of another large contingent of American troops, representing all arms of the service, was officially revealed today.

The units, which were quickly scattered throughout Britain after arriving at British ports, were fully equipped. The contingent was predominantly combatant and heavy personal arms were in evidence.

The American forces, which joined thousands of other United States men of arms, made a speedy crossing without incident. The convoy was made up of some world famous ships and was escorted by both British and American warships. As the convoy approached its destination, the coastal command of the RAF dispatched planes to guard it.

In the convoy were special service entertainment companies. The announcement of the arrival of the convoy was headlined in the Daily Mail with the following words:

"Another United States army here."

Madagascar Is Reported Quiet

(International News Service)

LONDON, Sept. 18.—The British radio station at Diego Suarez on the Island of Madagascar today confirmed occupation of Tamatave by British troops following withdrawal of the French defenders.

Authoritative circles also confirmed that Vichy authorities had rejected the terms of a British surrender offer although these were purely miltary and did not concern future administration of the territory.

It was pointed out that other parts of the island now under British administration are peaceful and normal.

Civilian Defense Groups Ready For Demonstration

Every civilian defense worker who will take part in the bomb demonstration and mass induction of workers at Taggart stadium Saturday night is ready. If the weather man is just as ready tomorrow night, the stadium should be as full as it is for a football game.

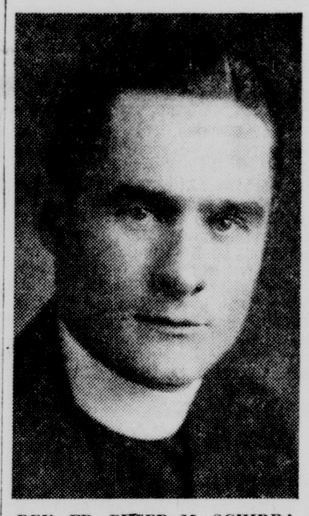

The bomb demonstration will be a complete one, surpassing in detail and action the one held earlier in the summer. Not only will explosive, incendiary and gas bombs be used, but a full complement of the various rescue squads will be present and show how to combat the effects of the bombs. These include decontamination and demolitions squads, first aid, road repairs, utility repairs, everything that is used in areas where bombs are real.

The demonstration is being presented under the auspices of the Lawrence County Council of Defense. A parade and flag lowering ceremony will open the show, the defense workers will be sworn in en masse, and the bomb demonstration will fill the second half of the program. There will be no charge and no collections at the demonstration. It is a part of a program of education designed to familiarize citizens with the effects of bomb raids and what can be done after they happen.

Rubber Czar Given Power By President

By JACK VINCENT
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—In a move that left no doubt as to the broad powers and responsibility vested in William Jeffers, the nation's new rubber czar, President Roosevelt today issued an executive order giving the rubber chief authority over all government agencies and bureaus insofar as rubber production is concerned.

The president's order followed the action of Donald M. Nelson, W.P.B. chairman in giving Charles E. Wilson, president of the General Electric Co., full power to work out war production programs and schedules in a move to end present confusion. Nelson's order stripped the army and navy of many of their powers.

Price Of News Will Increase Next Monday

Paper Will Cost Customers Four Cents Per Day Next Week

Due to the increased cost of production, and the decreased revenue from advertising, The News company has been forced to increase the price of the paper, which will be four cents per issue, starting on Monday, September 21. The cost per week when delivered by carrier will be 24 cents.

When the rates were raised last December from 15 to 18 cents per week by carrier, the carrier boys received the entire amount of this increase. The current increase in the price of the paper will be split between the carrier and News company.

The company regrets that it is forced to take this step because it does not feel like placing an added burden on the citizens of the community, but rising costs of production with a corresponding falling off in the volume of advertising makes it imperative.

Yearly subscription rates for out-of-town subscribers will not be effected by the change in prices at this time.

Siberian Troops Are Reinforcing Defenders Of Stalingrad Sector

Major Counter-Offensive Against Nazi Attackers Is Launched

Report Thousands Of Siberian Trained Troops Rushed To City

By JAMES E. BROWN
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

MOSCOW, Sept. 18.—Reinforced by crack Siberian troops and a 'peoples' army' which manned the city's blood-soaked ramparts, the defenders of Stalingrad launched a major counter-offensive on orders from Premier Josef Stalin and the Soviet high command today.

The eleventh-hour attack was ordered after long and careful preparation. High hopes were held out that under its impetus the almost month-long German onslaught against the city would be broken and the Soviet lines successfully reformed to spare Stalingrad the fate that has so long threatened it.

Big Reinforcements

The order was transmitted to every Soviet unit defending the imperilled Volga river metropolis and came as thousands of crack Siberian troops were rushed to the city to bolster the red army forces and a citizens' army which manned the blood-soaked ramparts.

The Kremlin's order came as front line dispatches said the Ger-

Dieppe Raid Cost Canada 3,000 Troops

(International News Service)

OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 18.—Canadian participation in the costly raid on Dieppe in which more than 3,000 Canadian troops were killed, wounded or captured was made with full realization of the dangers involved, Canadian Defense Minister J. L. Ralston asserted today.

"The United Nations have an agreed offensive policy," Ralston declared, "and in the preparation and development of such a policy the acquisition of the fullest possible information concerning the enemy's status and disposition and men and other elements affecting the conduct of operations is a matter of the most fundamental importance.

"Such information is available from many sources but it is frequently the case that facts essential to the successful prosecution of offensive operations can only be gained by fighting for them.

Chicago Holdup Man Executed

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—John Pantano, 20-year-old member of the "Three Hat Gang," was executed today in the electric chair for the murder of Policeman Charles Williams in a tavern holdup last May.

Shortly before Pantano was taken to the death house, his usual composure gave way and he collapsed. He was strapped into the death chair shortly before midnight, and the switch was thrown at 12:01 a. m. He was pronounced dead six minutes later.

Pantano was one of a holdup gang, the members of which were traced and captured through three hats they left at the scene of three separate holdups. Two other members of the gang received long prison terms.

Junior Commandos Stimulate Effort Last Evening Liberty Bell

ARMY CARS ARE COMING NEXT WEEK

Bond and stamp sales were very encouraging, Chairman L. B. Round, in charge of the sales effort being made by the local theaters, when the Liberty Bell appeared at the Victor theater last evening, and the bell was rung to the tune of $2,300 worth of bonds and stamps.

Featuring the effort last evening was the appearance of the East Side Junior Commandos, directed by Mrs. Katherine Christofer, who sold $208 worth of stamps and bonds during the evening. They have been pepping up the sales this week in splendid fashion.

Tonight the bell will be at the Penn theater, and next week, many features will be witnessed as the drive comes near its close. Wednesday evening, a jeep and scout car will be here, with regulation equipment, which will make the rounds of the theaters between 2 and 9 p. m., and the Legion band will also be present.

U. S. Subs Hamper Jap Supply Lines

Prevent Japan "Cashing In" On Spoils In Philippines And East Indies

SUB TOLL OF JAP SHIPS REACHES 109

By JOSEPH A. BORS
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—Continuing to hammer away at Japanese invasion units in the Aleutians and the southwest Pacific, U. S. submarines today are preventing the enemy from "cashing in" fully on spoils won in the Philippines and the East Indies by sinking cargo ships in far eastern waters.

Although the navy gives no details about American submarine attacks, naval experts assert that every torpedo attack reported to date serves a dual purpose:

Double Benefit

1—Prevents the Japanese from moving all the war supplies they need from Japan to enemy invasion garrisons in the mandated islands and the southwest Pacific, including the Solomons.

2—Cuts down the number of ships the Nipponese can use to transport vital raw materials from the Netherlands East Indies, the Philippines and other captured areas back to Japan.

In the long run, naval analysts contend that these American submarine attacks will have an important effect on Japan's capacity to keep its war industries running at top speed as well as on Nippon's ability to carry on the fight against the United States.

These facts were emphasized by the navy's latest communique which stated that American subs in far eastern waters have sunk two large freighters, one medium size freighter and a small patrol boat.

In addition, one large tanker was set on fire, and one large freighter, one transport and one medium sized cargo ship damaged.

These attacks brought to 109 the number of Nipponese ships of all types sunk and damaged to date by U. S. submarines. Most of these were cargo, supply ships and tankers.

Some navy men believe that such continued attacks upon Japanese shipping eventually will force Japan to shift more and more to defensive warfare in the Pacific.

Belligerent Crow Makes Attacks

Boys, Dog, And Squirrel Are Attacked In Streets Of Chicago

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—The enemy, a bellicose black crow which established temporary air superiority, was routed and the quite suburban community of River Forest returned to its accustomed serenity today.

The crow began its air raids by attacking two five-year-old boys, Jimmie Pyott and Allen Henning, from the roof of the Pyott home. The kids ran yelling into the house.

The crow then sailed into a small gray squirrel which high-tailed it away from there in a hurry. His next target was a Boxer dog against which Mr. Crow carried out some reconnaissance attacks, but the dog stood his ground. In the meantime Jimmie's mother had summoned police.

When the cops arrived, the crow retreated to the top of the house and took refuge behind an iron guard rail. One of the policemen fired a shot at the enemy which struck close. The ack-ack was getting too heavy and the crow flew away, presumably to his base.

News Briefs From City Hall

City police last night arrested James Holland, white, and Charles Pander, colored, for asserted panhandling. Officer Showalter arrested Holland and Officer Reese took Pander in charge. Both were discharged in police court today. It was the second time within 48 hours that Pander had been arrested. Indications are that panhandlers will be driven from the streets here.

While on a tour of inspection yesterday Police Chief W. G. McMullen noticed a man carrying a camera, took him into custody, learned he had no license to operate here and ordered the man, who was from Youngstown, to appear before Mayor Charles B. Mayne. The photographer claimed he was unaware he was required to possess a license, paid the ctiy treasurer for one and was allowed to do business.

State motor police have assumed charge of James Como, Volant R. D. 2, who was taken into custody by city police early Thursday morning on suspicion of having been implicated in the theft of a V-8 motor from Millburn vicinity. An associate escaped. He is being sought, it was reported today. Como claims that the man who fled at the approach of the police said he had found the motor in a ditch.

Chief of Police Willis G. McMullen today stated that 54 auxiliary policemen are ready for duty. He says that they have completed their first aid lessons and will receive lessons in police work. He believes that, in time, the body will become a valuable assistant to the regular police department. They will participate in Saturday night's pageant at Taggart stadium.

Ford automobile, owned by Nick di Alesandra, 765 Lathrop street, which was reportedly stolen September 16, was recovered at Clifton Flats, police reported this morning.

Dr. W. A. and farm price ceilings above present levels for many workers and for many food products.

Administration leaders insisted that the anti-inflation bill will be consistent with Mr. Roosevelt's proposal that both wages and farm prices be stabilized at approximate present levels, with authority for variations.

Mr. Roosevelt, in opposing the "farm bloc", insisted that the present method of calculating parity prices (which are the equivalent of the farmer's purchasing power from 1909 to 1914) is fair.

"I don't agree with him," said Bankhead. "I am offering my amendment to include the cost of hired labor in the parity base."

Farm experts conceded that such a formula would boost the upper limit on farm prices beyond present ceilings for many major crops such as corn and wheat.

He also organized boys football, baseball, and basketball at St. Joseph's school, his team winning the championship from St. Mary's school at the K. of C. picnic in 1939, for which they received handsome cup.

Those who have been associated with him in these various activities have known him as an energetic and resourceful worker, enthusiastic in the support of New Castle and Lawrence county institutions. His departure will be accepted with genuine regret by all who know him, but they will join in wishing him the same success in his new field that he has enjoyed here.

DAVIES TO BUY SIREN FOR CITY

Siren Which Has Been Placed In Seventh Ward Approved

D. O. Davies, safety director for the city, today said he would recommend to council that the city buy the five h. p. electric siren that has been placed on the Cherry street fire department building. The siren was tried out and found satfactory for Seventh ward purposes, he stated. The siren will cost about $350.00, and will be bought from the Federal Electric company, Chicago.

Recently council authorized Davies to purchase as many sirens as he deems necessary for properly alarming the city in time of an air raid.

Widow Has Six Sons In Service

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 18.—Six of her seven sons are now serving Uncle Sam at a time when he needs them most, Mrs. Margaret Rodgers, a widow of Minersville, proudly reported today. Her sixth son, Anthony, enlisted in the marine corps yesterday.

Her youngest son, William, 17, is still at home. Others in the armed services are Walter, 29; Stanton, 31; Charles, 28; James, 26; and John, 19.

The two mysteries in domestic relations are why some wives shoot their husbands and why some others don't.

CASTLE HILLS GOLF LUNCHEON THURSDAY

Castle Hills Ladies Day was observed Wednesday by golf enthusiasts when they met on the green at 10 o'clock and teed off for the day's events. Mrs. David Ashton was hostess in charge and she featured as the special contest a "blind boogie".

Those winning awards were Miss Eleanor Bolinger and Mrs. T. Solomon.

Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock in the club dining room, tapering off the informal program.

Thursday, September 24, they will be guests of Mrs. Edward Miller.

Attention was given to the fact that the golfers of the club will gather in the Wallace block on the fourth floor Thursday, September 24, and cut bandages for the the local chapter of the American Red Cross, the hours from 7 to 9 in the evening to be observed. A large attendance is expected to share these meetings, this marking their first.

Playemall Club

Mrs. John Grove of East Washington street entertained the Playemall club members in her home Thursday evening, when they honored the birthday of one of their number, Mrs. Harry Fye. She was showered with an array of hankies as mementos of the occasion.

In cards, Mrs. Henry Robinson and Mrs. Albert Kenst were the honor score winners, while Mrs. Carm DeLone carried off the club token. A special guest, Mrs. Louis Edmundson was remembered with a hostess gift. Lunch was served as the closing feature.

On October 1 Mrs. Henry Robinson of Lorain avenue will receive the group for a wiener roast.

B. P. W. CLUB OPENING SESSION SEPTEMBER 23

Business and Professional Woman's club members, have drawn to a close, another summer recess period, and are now ready to open their fall calendar of activities, the initial meeting scheduled for Wednesday evening September 23, in the form of a 6 o'clock dinner. It will be held at The Castleton, and reservations of those planning to attend, will be accepted by the calling captains up until Monday noon.

Miss Geraldine Fry is program chairman for this date, and as guest speaker, they will have Mrs. J. J. McIlvaine.

An important business period will follow the program, however that is of utmost interest to the membership.

JAMESON HOSPITAL SEWING PROGRESSES

Sewing at Jameson Memorial hospital continues, with various organizations having the privilege of serving as hostess on different dates.

Last Wednesday, the Epworth Guild ladies of Epworth Methodist church were present and donated their services from 9 o'clock in the morning until 12 noon. Activities were conducted in the solarium of the hospital, and a large number of garments and needed articles were completed at this time.

On Wednesday, September 30, another group of women will preside as hostesses. They are, the Kings Daughters of the Westfield Missionary Society of Mahoningtown. A large representation is promised for this date also, with the same hours to be observed.

MRS. WM. CARTWRIGHT HONORED AT SHOWER

Honoring Mrs. William Cartwright, nee Gertrude Lineberger, and a bride of recent date, Mrs. James W. Ider entertained in her home on County Line street Thursday evening at a shower party. She had as co-hostess Mrs. Edna C. Ricer, and the affair interested coworkers of the honoree.

The hours were whiled away most informally with cards and other pastimes, and at a suitable hour a delectable repast was served. The hostesses had the dining room table beautifully appointed in the nuptial motif, with a large tiered cake adorning the center.

In conclusion Mrs. Cartwright was presented with an array of prettily wrapped packages, and when opened revealed a collection of lovely gifts of a miscellaneous nature.

The couple was married on September 5 at Montclair, N. J., where he is serving in the U. S. armed forces.

DINNER-PROGRAM FOR GOLD STAR MOTHERS

Gold Star Mothers were entertained Thursday evening by members of V. F. W. Auxiliary No. 522 in their home on West Grant street.

After a sauerkraut dinner, the following program was presented: invocation, Mrs. Eva Sherry; pledge to flag; welcome by president, Mrs. Lillian Davis; response by commander A. A. Jones; introduction of Gold Star Mothers, Mrs. Ida Suber; tribute to Gold Star Mothers, Mrs. Evelyn Woods; solo, "Mother Macree", Mrs. Beatrice McNicholas; address, "Unity for Victory", A. A. Jones; address, "The Havocs of War", by Major C. C. McClain of Indiana, Pa., who was a special guest; closing song, "God Bless America".

Roses were presented to Gold Star Mothers, to Mrs. Mary Patterson of Butler, a special guest, and to Mrs. A. A. Jones by Mrs. Ida Suber, chairman of the affair.

Members of Mrs. Suber's committee were Mrs. Georgiana Walsh, Mrs. Rose Kirkwood, Mrs. Lucy Woolley, Mrs. Mary Sheridan, Mrs. Minnie Nicholson, Mrs. Mary Nicholson, Mrs. Ethel Bell, Mrs. Tempa Stickel, Mrs. Belle Whiteman and Mrs. Clare Hunt.

Both the Corporal McBride post and auxiliary are selling bonds and stamps in connection with the "Salute to Our Heroes" month now being observed.

ALPHA EPSILON ALUMNI TO MEET

Alpha Epsilon alumni chapter of the Alpha Gamma Delta will meet Tuesday night, September 22, in the home of Mrs. Robert A. Weingartner on the Butler road.

Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Bart Richards and Mrs. Robert A. Hoose.

Mr. And Mrs. Everett Snyder Married Fifty-Nine Years

MR. AND MRS. EVERETT SNYDER

A memorable date in the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Snyder, who reside on a large farm seven miles northwest of New Castle in Pulaski township, will be Saturday, September 19, when they observe their 59th wedding anniversary.

On September 19, 1889, the couple exchanged marriage vows, and they have spent their entire married lives in three locations, Butler county, New Castle and their present home. Both are enjoying better than average health considering their advanced years. Mr. Snyder, born in Butler county, is the son of Conrad Snyder who lived on a section of the old thousand acre tract purchased by his grandfather. Mrs. Snyder is the daughter of Dr. James Abernethy of near New Castle.

Helping to celebrate this happy occasion will be their children, Mrs. Ethel Smith of this city, Mrs. Mary Woodcock of Cochranton, Mrs. Gladys Allen of Pulaski, Mrs. Florence Thompson of Mercer, Miss Josephine Snyder, who is a teacher in the public schools of Cincinnati, O., Frank Snyder of Edenburg and Sarah and James Snyder at home. They also have 14 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

While the honored couple have made no preparations toward observing their wedding anniversary, their immediate family have prepared an informal dinner gathering and reception as a medium of observance, and too, this article and picture is an additional surprise planned by their children. Their host of friends join in extending congratulations.

A cordial invitation is extended to friends, relatives and neighbors to "drop in" and share the informal celebration.

FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY FOR MR. AND MRS. SHERER

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Sherer of Pleasant Hill Manor, Mt. Jackson road, celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary on Thursday, September 17, most informally at their home.

To commemorate the happy occasion, however, they dined at a downtown tea room in the evening.

The couple was wed 40 years ago at the home of Mrs. Sherer's parents, the late George Lee and Elizabeth Taylor of Little Beaver township. Her uncle, the late Rev. M. Taylor, then pastor of the Westfield Presbyterian church, was the officiating minister, and he read the service in the presence of 118 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Sherer have resided in this vicinity ever since, and are the parents of five children. They are Eva M., Robert L. and Carl W., all of this city, Richard C. of Canton, O., and Ensign Chester T. of Pensacola, Fla. Also, they have five grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherer entertained on a previous evening at a family dinner in Pleasant Hill Manor, prior to the departure of their son and wife, Ensign and Mrs. Chester T. Sherer, who have returned to Pensacola, Fla., where he has resumed his duties.

Adding further to the day's joys, Mr. and Mrs. Sherer received many cards conveying congratulations from many as well as personal greetings from their host of friends.

1936 S. F. Club

Members of the 1936 S. F. club were entertained Thursday noon in the home of Matilda Wirt, Harbor road, who served a deliciously prepared dinner at noon, honoring the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Rose Alexander. Miss Kathryn Wirtz aided with the menu, and following, a social period was enjoyed.

Cards were in play, with Mrs. Thomas Covert and Mrs. Walter Schweikert winning the trophies. The door award fell to Mrs. David Yoho.

On October 1 Mrs. James Clare of 1219 South Jefferson street, will entertain in her home.

RECENT BRIDE GIVEN PARTY AT J. DART HOME

Honoring Mrs. John Chellman nee Betty Lou Orr, a bride of June 9, 1942, the L. T. D. club members were entertained as guests Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. James Dart on East Washington street, the occasion taking the form of a miscellaneous shower.

Bridge was in play, with Emma Evans and Mrs. Chellman capturing the honor awards. Mrs. Earl Knowles was a special guest who shared.

After serving a tasty repast, the honoree was presented with an array of lovely gifts from the assemblage. Regular meeting for the L. T. D.'s will be Wednesday, September 23, with Mrs. James Waldo, Park avenue.

B. A. MEMBERSHIP GUESTS THURSDAY

Mrs. Joseph Panella, of Huey street, opened her home to the B. A. club membership Thursday evening, with attention being given to contests in 500. Mrs. Jesse Colaluca and Mrs. Arthur Prioletti won the honor prizes.

A delicious repast was served by the hostess at a late hour, and places marked for the regular number and several special guests. They were: Mrs. Jake Seward, Mrs. Fred Jenkins, Mrs. Andrew Nocera and Mrs. Norman Weller, all of whom received hostess remembrances. The latter aided with the menu.

Their next meeting, on October 1, will be with Mrs. Nick Casalandra, on Cascade street. Plans were formed for a chicken dinner, however, this to be held Saturday, Sept. 26, with husbands as guests. The place will be announced.

Y. M. M. CLUB HAS INFORMAL SESSION

Mrs. Henry Stoner of Huron avenue, opened her home to the Y. M. M. club membership Thursday evening, with the early period being devoted to a round of 500. Mrs. Aaron Yoho, Mrs. Harvard Houston and Mrs. Henry Stoner were the fortunate prize winners. The "galloper" however were carried off by Mesdames Houston and Stoner.

Special guest of the occasion was Mrs. Lewis McKnight, who was remembered with a hostess gift.

After partaking of a tasty repast they planned a similar meeting on October 1 with Mrs. Willis Boyd on County Line street.

D. G. S. Club Meeting

Mrs. Lee Weaver of Emerson avenue proved a charming hostess in her home Thursday evening when she entertained members of the D. G. S. club.

Cards were the diversion, with Mrs. Ray Biddle and Mrs. Steve Plano receiving the prizes. The hostess was assisted in serving delicious refreshments by Mrs. John Robinson and Mrs. Dale Gibson.

The date for the next meeting has been changed to Friday evening, Sept. 25, at the home of Mrs. Ray Biddle in Edenburg.

EMELINE ROSE LODGE PLANS DISTRICT EVENT

Evening Section of the Woman's club held their opening event Thursday evening in the Elks home with a dinner party, the menu being served at 6:30 o'clock. Seasonal decorations were used, with flowers forming the table centerpiece.

Afterwards, tables of bridge were in play with Margaret Cowmeadow, Mildred Sargent and Mrs. Howard Frew winning the prizes. Those on the social committee for the evening included Marian Campbell, chairman; Ruth G. Sample, Mrs. Eleanor Nelson, Gertrude Chapin, Ruth Steel and Mrs. Walter Reneker.

A special guest was Mrs. Archie Morgan, a past president of the organization.

Business was presided over by Georgiana McNees, when they planned their regular meeting for October 1 with Barbara Schulz on Butler avenue.

WINTER AND THE WAR

TIME was when winter suspended war. Armed forces habitually went into winter quarters. The situation is now such that instead of a suspension the world stands to witness an intensification of the conflict when cold weather arrive in this latitude.

The season will not arrest action in the South Pacific area. There Japan's chief objective remains the invasion of India, with the opening of a line of communication through coastal China and the prevention of a flank attack of Australia. Winter will not be a factor in this equatorial area. It will figure only in Japan's strategy if Tokyo attempts a Siberian campaign.

Neither will the approaching season halt hostilities in North Africa. Instead, winter weather will find the campaign there emphasizing the effort of the Allies to drive the Axis from that continent.

At only one battlefront is winter weather this year likely to play a major part. That is on the Moscow and Leningrad fronts in northern Russia. These fronts Hitler can not leave behind him in any deeper thrust into the Caucasus. In those sectors autumnal rains have already set in. Frost and snow will follow soon. Cold will grip the fatigued Nazi forces like a vise.

And while the weather has those forces in its icy hold, Britain and America, regardless of winter weather, can cross the Channel, set up a second front and forge across France into Germany, with Hitler frantically attempting to rush his armies from northern Russia back across Europe—with winter weather launching there the most stupendous struggle of the conflict and ending the era of crazy conquest and crushing its unconscionable instigator.

STATE REVENUE LOSS

Last year American motorists paid in gasoline taxes into the coffers of the forty-eight states about a billion dollars. They added another half billion dollars in the form of license registrations on motor vehicles. Both sources of revenue are now off, in the gasoline rationed states sharply and in the other states noticeably. They will suffer a further decrease when gasoline rationing becomes national.

Pennsylvania's gasoline tax collections are little more than one-half of what they were last year. Massachusetts collection are down one-third. But farther west where gasoline is still available without coupons the downtrend in revenue is also marked. Michigan, Ohio, Minnesota and Louisiana report decreases in gasoline tax receipts ranging from 10 to 17 per cent. In the vacation state of Arkansas gasoline sales held up but motor vehicle registration fees dropped nearly 50 per cent.

In the thirteen states surveyed revenue from some other sources showed gains. Taxes on liquor are an example. But these gains fail to offset the decline in taxes obtained from the motor car.

MIDDLE AMERICA'S CHANCE

Much more than good-will in ample doses will be necessary after the war to maintain reciprocally beneficial commerce with Latin America. A practical illustration of what can be done is revealed in the statement made today by the United Fruit Company concerning its experimental cultivation of certain valuable tropical crops. The company has devised long-range plans to assist agriculture in Middle America, which takes in Mexico as well as Central America proper.

For several years experiments have been made in Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua, Costa Rica and Panama with the growing of manila hemp, quinine, palm oil and Hevea rubber. The fruit company's intention is to help small farmers to enter an agricultural export business which may become of incalculable value to the United States as well as to the countries so engaged.

Crops which for decades have been shipped from the Orient may be cultivated over vast areas of Middle America in the next few years, assuring continental supplies of chemicals and other raw materials that in this war are of strategic importance. By operating experimental plantations, the fruit company hopes to convince the native farmers of Middle America that their future prosperity lies in providing such non-competitive tropical products for our rich markets. Air transport of freight is cited as one recent development that makes more attractive such an extension of agriculture in our neighboring republics.—New York Sun.

WOMEN SET PROUD RECORD

American women have been inducted into the Army and the Navy to form auxiliary units of the fighting forces. They are performing tasks in industry that heretofore they had been regarded as incapable of doing.

Age-old notions about the limitations of their capacity and adaptability because of physical and psychological barriers are falling to pieces. Checks in various parts of the country, notably in California, show women, generally, to be giving satisfactory results in mechanical skill entirely new to them. In some jobs requiring dexterity, speed and accuracy they do even better than men, which somewhat balances up man's superiority in physical strength.

A notable development in the employment of women is their admission to the Brooklyn Navy Yard to work as mechanics. The Navy Yard has been in Brooklyn for 141 years, but never before have feminine hands been permitted to toil in the construction and repair of ships. The qualifications of the women taken on is indicated by the fact that the first 125 included thirteen college graduates and forty-seven who have at least two years of college. Only three had failed to finish high school. That they will give a good accounting is to be expected.

As more and more men are drawn into military service, women, of course, will play an increasingly important role in the staffing of war industries. Incidentally, their gradual absorption is requiring less extensive readjustment of processes and machinery than in World War 1, due to the advance in industrial mechnization and subdivision of work. But while the changeover is creating some special problems, particularly as concerns children through the employment of many mothers, these are being realistically faced and prepared for.

The record of women workers to date in performing uncommon duties is one of faithful and efficient service, of willingness to learn as well as to sacrifice.

The Parent Problem

TRAIN GIRLS AND BOYS IN CLUB WORK

Wartime has made the 4-H clubs more useful than ever before. When I was a boy on the farm such a thing as a 4-H club was unheard of.

Thanks to the 4-H clubs for girls and boys, and to the Future Farmers of America for older boys, not only are youngsters on the farm and in rural areas learning useful skills in producing and preserving foods but they are learning to be good civic leaders in their community. Also boys and girls in the larger town and cities are enrolling in these clubs. These clubs accomplish a great deal by cultivating wholesome pride in rural homes and in advancement of rural life in areas away from crowded cities; even at cultivating in city folks a more wholesome attitude toward country people.

Helps Develop Personality

Besides, the 4-H club is a mighty force in developing personality. It brings many youths of the same age-range together, motivating them to achieve with satisfaction, to express themselves, and to make friends. When a 4-H girl meets a 4-H boy they have strong interests in common outside themselves. The 4-H club also gives special recognition for all services performed by its members for the church, school and community, thus binding the home and 4-H work with other activities.

As with Scouts, Campfire, Y-clubs and the like, one constant problem is to find leadership. This is especially acute in wartime. Those who have ability to lead and faithfully do so, render a service far greater than they suppose.

On Citizen's Contribution

Mrs. Ben Ellett of Hampton, Ill., a mother of several young children, writes:

"We began with 13 members, the second year we had 17, and last year 21. All three years we have been an achievement club. The last two years we also have been a 100 per cent club.....

"Our population here in Hampton is about 525 and I think there are 100 families. We expect a membership of 35 or more in the two clubs this year. The older club will be high school age and may include a few boys. Since there are no boys' clubs in Hampton and I can find no man to lead one, I will be leading both clubs.

"I will use my same assistant leaders from last year in my older group and will use Mary Jane Frazier (6 years in 4-H) and Marjorie Tompkins (5 years in 4-H) in the junior club. These two girls were junior leaders last year, a system I have worked out for training leaders I can't find among the adults. It is a shame more women do not train for 4-H work. The State University gives every opportunity for free training and materials. I have learned so much that helps me in my home."

Right now, as never before, women and men of integrity, dependability and leadership are needed to guide our young people in the 4-H clubs, Scouts, Campfire, Y-clubs and various church groups.

GOOD NEWS FOR CHILDHOOD

Christmas toys will be as brightly colored as ever next Christmas, the war notwithstanding.—Washington dispatch.

Whatever else the war may stop
And Germans steal from people free,
Still red will be the humming top
And brightly colored drums will be.
Still little children will awake
On Christmas morn to countless joys,
For even Hitler cannot take
The splendor for their Christmas toys.

The Germans may with force and fire
The relics of the past destroy;
May level every temple spire,
But cannot crush a Christmas toy.
In spite of hate and lust for power,
And greed and madness these remain:
The gladness of the Christmas hour,
The brightly painted sled and train.

Though ancient glories fall and fade
And what has been will be no more,
Though armies lie in ambuscade
And slaughter stains both sea and shore;
Though people mad world-wide appear
'Tis good to know let come what may,
In spite of death and dismal fear,
There will be toys for Christmas Day.

EXPERT ON SPEED

Speaking of court matters reminds us of another incident within legal chambers.

A soldier was on the witness stand testifying as to the speed and direction of an automobile that had hit another car.

"So you estimate that Blank's car was going 65½ miles an hour, eh?" asked the defense attorney. "Now what makes you think you are such a good judge of speed and distance anyway?"

"My work in the army," answered the soldier.

The lawyer walked into it with eyes wide open.

"What do you do in the army that qualifies you in such details?" he demanded.

"I'm the observer on a big gun battery," the soldier said. "It is my job to sight the shots and see where they land."

OPPORTUNITY

A Canadian private and British corporal entered a "pub" somewhere in England and each ordered a beer. Before drinking his, the corporal went out to buy a paper.

The barmaid, a pretty wench, pursed her lips invitingly and leaned over the bar towards the shy young Canadian.

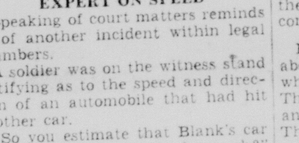

Putting her face against his, she whispered: "Now's your chance, Canada."

The private looked around the empty room.

"By golly, so it is," he said; and promptly drank the corporal's beer.

DON'T TAKE MORE THAN YOUR SHARE

"I am an office worker and commuter and am constantly irritated by selfish people who cause me to stand in street cars because they won't move closer together or take their bags and bundless off the seats. Do you not think I have a right to be sarcastic under such circumstances?"—Dorothy.

Answer: You have the right but you will be unwise if you exercise it. The proper procedure is to request in a firm but dignified voice: "Will you kindly make room for me." Then if the offender fails to do so, you should ask the conductor or guard to see that room is made for you. If this does not bring results, you should repeat your direct request.

Sarcasm and cynical humor at the expense of others within hearing are crude and cheap when resorted to during personal encounters. ignified firmness almost invariably brings the results desired in cases such as you mention. In public debates where the object is to impress galleries and radio audiences, sarcasm and irony are often effective. But those to whom it is directed are thereby rendered less co-operative and very often angry to the point of retaliation.

Question: Who stands in the receiving line at a wedding ceremony and in what order.—Hilda.

Answer: If yours is to be a large wedding with a maid of honor and many bridesmaids, you may have two receiving lines—one for the bridal party and the other for your parents and those of your bridegroom. In this event, the parents' line should form near the living room door to be approached first by incoming guests. Your mother should head the line. Next to her, should stand the groom's mother with her husband by her side and your father last, if he wishes to stand in line. our receiving line should be farther back in a conspicuous spot. In it should be: First, the bride standing to the groom's right. The maid of honor standing beside the bride. The bridesmaids may be divided—half on the bride's side and half on the groom's side. The best man and ushers usually circulate among the guests. You may have only one receiving line, thus: your mother first, with your father standing by her side. You come next with the bridegroom by your side, then his mother, his father, the maid of honor. This method will allow the bridegroom to introduce the guests to his parents. To prevent "a procession" aspect, I should eliminate bridesmaids in the latter case.

What's What At A Glance

One Way Of Slowing Up Speedy Drivers
Roosevelt Showed How It Should Work
Baruch's Plan Is All Right In Theory

By CHARLES P. STEWART
(Central Press Columnist)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—President Roosevelt appears to have hit on a pretty sure cure for the evil of auto speeding, with its resultant chewing up of the nation's tires and aggravation of the rubber shortage which threatens the whole war effort we're all so vitally concerned in speeding up to its maximum limit. Bernard N. Baruch's plan is all right in theory.

He prescribes rules.

He penalizes speeding, but the speeder has to be caught at it and then convicted, and convicting him isn't always so easy, for a skilled speedfiend knows how to doctor the record of his rate of travel. He can be rationed, which, in the long run will limit him as to the ultimate volume of his wastefulness, but what he's wasted in the meantime is lost for good.

Bernard also made the point that authority has been too scattered—that concentration of it in some absolute czar's hands was essential. That's been attended to and no doubt it'll help. However, the czar can't be everywhere. He has to delegate it to a multiplicity of deputies. Personally he's an imposing functionary, as a czar. But his assistants, individually, are of no great consequence apiece. A chronic speeder's a persistent cuss. Even if caught and brought to book, he's apt to offend over and over again until he's rationed completely out of his facilities for keeping it up. And while rationing him modifies him somewhat, it doesn't prohibit him altogether.

Impractical, But—

Now, I don't imagine that F. D. recommends his experimental system as an all-out substitute for Bernard Baruch's. It probably wouldn't be a practicability on a very large scale. Nevertheless, within its limitations, it seems to have worked remarkably well.

The White House tenant described it at one of his recent press conferences.

He had recent occasion, he explained, to be hiking, of course by auto, along the Albany Post Road, holding strictly down to his legal 35-mile nourly limit, but hitting it up to that figure, as he was perfectly entitled to do.

Just behind him was a carful of secret servicers, as is customary in the presidential case.

Coming up from the rear, a succession of 22 other, private autos overtook and tried to pass the executive vehicle and its escort. Since this pair were registering their 35 miles each, it was obvious that the ensuing 22 were surpassing it, in bold violation of wartime rules.

With a flirt of his hand, car after car, F. D. signalled the following secret servites, and, one after another, they warned the on-coming 22 to put on their brakes.

This greatly enraged the pursuing two-score-and-two drivers, and they angrily demanded, "Who in heck is that who's giving orders to us?"

To which the secret servicers' answer was, "He's the president of the United States."

They Were Tamed

Well, the upshot was that the presidential and secret servicers' cars, having arrived at their destined stopping place, stood by, while 22 private cars snooped past as unostentatiously as possible, without the hoot of a horn.

How fast they went afterward F. D. doesn't know, but he's qualified to speak as to their lick while they were held under control behind him.

Of course, under ordinary circumstances, they'd have been pinched for speeding, if there'd been any check on 'em, anybody to keep the record and anybody to rush 'em into limbo to answer for their waste of gas and rubber and disregard of regulations. But, naturally, the White House car's occupants and their escorting secret servicers couldn't pause to bother with such details.

The point I'm makin' is this—If a rubber-wasting speeder, called to reckoning for his misdeed, were to be informed, "Your accuser is the president of the United States"—it would impress him considerably.

It goes almost without saying that this is an impossibility at a distance from Washington and the Albany Post Road.

It does demonstrate, though, what an advantage Franklin D. Roosevelt possesses over Bernard M. Baruch. F. D.'s mere name and title are finis as to auto scorching. Bernard needs legislation and proclamations to make his mandates stick.

LOOKING AT LIFE

—By Erich Brandeis

Things have changed considerably in 60 years, according to the U. S. Census Bureau.

In 1880, 481 out of every 1000 people living in this country were under 20 years of age; 400 between 20 and 50 years, and 119 over 50 years. In 1940, only 345 out of 1000 were under 20; 452 between 20 and 50, and 154 over 50 years of age.

As usual you can put several meanings on these figures.

Because figures, as you have heard, don't lie, but those who put them together and interpret them can certainly juggle them for all they are worth.

One thing these census figures mean is that people are getting older. For that we can thank medicine and science.

With more older people living our viewpoint will probable become more adult than it has been.

With fewer young people there will be less swing and more staid waltz time in our thinking and acting.

And we'll need all the sober thinking and acting to reorganize this topsy-turvy world.

We have had a glorious era of adolescence in this country. We have danced and sung and laughed. We have squadered and spent as if each of us were a millionaire.

We have enjoyed today—because tomorrow was only another day in an endless number of days.

We were all boys and girls under 20, even if we were 70.

But we are older now. And most of us are wiser.

December 7 was the last day of our adolescence.

It was the first time in our history that we grew from boy to man, from girl to woman in one day!

Yes, things have changed in 60 years.

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIERNAN
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

On August 11 the Germans claimed to have sunk the British aircraft carrier Eagle. On August 12 the British admiralty said "that is correct."

Now let us step aboard the magic carpet and travel to Washington.

On June 10, the Japs claimed to have sunk two of our aircraft carriers in the battle of Midway June 3-6. We didn't admit anything.

On July 14 we said that the aircraft carrier Yorktown had been bombed and put out of action in the Midway battle.

On September 16 we admitted that actually the Yorktown had been sunk on June 6.

We were fooling the enemy.

But on July 14 while we were claiming the Yorktown was afloat we were admitting that the destroyer Hammann was sunk. And the Hammann was with the Yorktown, and it was the same Jap submarine which attacked both!

Thought for the day: Paging Elmer Davis . . . paging Elmer Davis!

The World and the Mud Puddles

COMMENDABLE ANYWAY

While it seems unlikely that prisoners now seeking release for army and navy enlistment will gain their end, much more can and should be done to provide war work for prisoners. Where facilities are available, prisoners have set an enviable pace in turning out war products, but nearly half the federal and state prisoners are still idle while millions of dollars worth of equipment is going to waste. Prisoners not permitted to fight should at least be allowed to work for their country.

In the United States penitentiary at Leavenworth, one hundred thirty-seven prisoners have petitioned to be sent to the jungles of Brazil to help develop a new rubber supply. In their petition they note that "few white men survive this climate," but insist that "we would rather die gathering rubber in the jungles helping toward victory for our nation than to live in prison while others fight and work to save our country." They expect no acknowledged glory, they say, but want only "the satisfaction our immediate families will have, and to know we have in some small manner compensated for the errors made against society."

While the plan suggested might run into practical snags and might not meet the approval of Brazil, the petition is a commendable patriotic move that should hasten the provision of war activity for prisoners over the whole country.

American Army Shows Best Record For Health

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—The American army is in better health than any American army has ever been in wartime, Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson declared today.

Hospital admissions for all causes is already 10 per cent lower than in 1941, and so far this year there has been no mild influenza epidemic as was the case early last year, he said. Common ills such as colds, sore throats and measles are down to "as low a level as can reasonably be expected."

Veneral disease is substantially less than during the World War, with the syphilis rate now lowest in army history, Stimson told a press conference.

The total venereal disease rate on an annual basis was 40.5 per 1,000 men in 1941 and 38 per 1,000 for the first six months of 1942, he added. About 19 new infections occurred among every 1,000 men during the first half of this year.

Throughout 1941 and thus far in 1942 the death rate has been the lowest in army history, the secretary declared. From one-half to two-thirds of these deaths resulted from "external causes," such as traffic accidents.

Universal vaccination virtually eliminated smallpox, and while one meningitis case in three was fatal during the World War this rate is now down to 1 in 20. Thus far, 1942 has seen no true epidemics of infectious diseases in the army, he said, declaring this to be the more remarkable in view of the army's rapid expansion.

Four Soldiers Are Drowned

LEESVILLE, La., Sept. 18.—Military authorities announced today the drowning of four third army soldiers who were swept away by the flood-swollen current of the stream they were trying to cross during Louisiana maneuvers.

They were Sgt. Delcorsa, 24, Pittston, Pa.; Pfc. Evans M. Reynolds, 23, Graham, Tex.; Pfc. Mike Pleyer, 25, Chicago, and Pvt. Gerald Van Ort, 25, Chicago.

Attempting to reach their objective on the other side, the soldiers plunged into the treacherous current after the only available bridge had been "blown up"

TWO CENT SURPLUS

INDEPENDENCE, Mo.—The Independence city council was in dither when the city clerk read aloud "parking meter receipts, $237.67." The council stirred and the mayor inquired why the odd pennies when parking meters are made for nickel deposits. After questions flew thick and fast the council concluded someone had used two pennies instead of nickels. The lawmakers settled down to routine business after congratulating the city on its two-cent surplus.

Spur Campaign For Collection Of Scrap Metal

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Sept. 18.—Spurring the campaign to collect 3,000,000 tons of scrap iron and steel in Pennsylvania, the state highway department today placed its trucks at the disposal of local salvage committees while state education officials called upon school children to lend their aid.

As the 15-day "scrap harvest" campaign entered its fourth day, Secretary of Highways I. Lamont Hughes announced that his department would aid the 880 local salvage committees to collect the scrap on the final three days of the campaign.

"This will solve the transportation problem of many salvage committees and should result in a thorough cleanup of the farms of the state during the last two weeks of this month," asserted Colley S. Baker, executive secretary of the state salvage committee.

The school scrap campaign will open on October 5 and continue for three weeks, said Superintendent of Public Instruction Francis B. Haas.

WICKER SHOES FOR DUTCH

(International News Service)

LONDON. — The shoe factories of the so-called Langstraat—a series of villages in the province of North Brabant in the Low Countries with tanning and shoemaking as the main industries—have announced that a new type of shoe, manufactured from reed, wicker or rush, will soon be brought upon the market "in several elegant models." These ersatz shoes will not be rationed, and the factories promise they will be rather durable.

Three Die In Electric Chair

(International News Service)

OSSINING, N. Y., Sept. 18.—Sing Sing's death house—so-called "murderer's row"—and three less inmates today following last night's triple execution, the first in many months.

Put to death were Manuel Jacinto, 48, of Highland Falls, N. Y., who was convicted of the grudge slaying of Mrs. Doris Croyle and her employer, James Monto, coal and ice dealer; and two Negro "muggers" who strangled their victim in a hold-up that netted them only 14 cents plus a few dollars they realized on clothing they stripped from his body. They were: Lawrence Edwards, 19 and James Clark, 22, both of New York City.

SEEK BIRTH DATA

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG. — The demand for birth certificates within the past three years has increased from a negligible number of routine requests to a peak of 4,200 daily last February. Requests now are averaging about 3,000 daily. The State Bureau of Vital Statistics last year issued 256,000 certified copies of birth records, a greater number than any other state. The requirement by the Army, Navy and defense industries for proof of birth in this country started the rush on the bureau.

CATHEDRAL CHAPTER, 440 OFFICERS DINE; ORGANIZE

Members of the 1936-37 officers of Cathedral Chapter of Order of the Eastern Star No. 440 enjoyed a tureen dinner Thursday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Leslie on Moore avenue.

The rooms were decorated with roses thorughout, and the dining table was especially colorful where a full course menu was served. Places were set for 20 or more guests.

Business was taken up afterwards when they decided to organize into a club, which will be known as the E. L. O. club. They will meet twice a year, once in the summer and once in the winter, their next gathering to be in January with Mrs. Charles Gee of Rose avenue, the date to be announced. They elected for their president Mrs. R. G. Leslie and Mrs. Hazel Katheson is secretary and treasurer.

Mrs. O. A. Ishler was present as a special guest and also Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hartman and son Joe, Jr., shared as visitors last evening.

Report Is Received On Interned Americans Held In Philippines

By KINGSBURY SMITH
(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—Latest reports by the state department concerning interned American nationals in Manila today indicated that the health of the internees is fair and their morale excellent.

Approximately 3,500 American nationals are now held by the Japanese in Manila. Negotiations are underway between the United States and Japan through the intermediary good offices of the Swiss government for the repatriation of all these Americans, and it is hoped that several hundred of them will start for home next month.

About 2,500 of the Americans are held in the Santo Tomas internment camp in Manila, along with approximately 1,000 other western nationals, most of whom are British and Dutch.

The rest of the Americans, numbering about 1,000, are living in Manila city. Some of them, including a number of women with small babies, are staying at the convent of the Holy Ghost. Other mothers with young children and some of the older people are permitted to remain in their homes, or in the homes of friends. Their movements are closely restricted. However, those held in the Santo Tomas internment camp are permitted from time to time to visit families living outside the camp.

Although the internment camp is closely watched by the Japanese, the administration of it is left in the hands of the internees. Prominent former business executives, engineers, doctors and educators share in directing the organizational work of the camp. Measures have been taken to maintain scrupulous cleanliness, and weekly prizes are distributed for the neatest and cleanest rooms.

There are school classes and dances for the children, and lectures and entertainment for adults. Children under 6 years of age live with their mothers in a special building in the camp, where they are less crowded and given extra foods.

Most of the food used in the camp so far has been supplied by the Philippine chapter of the American Red Cross, which has used funds at its disposal to purchase the food from Japanese-controlled markets.

The diet, planned by doctors of the Rockefeller foundation, is described as monotonous but adequate. Internees with funds are able to supplement it with purchases of fresh fruit and vegetables.

Living conditions for adults in the internment camp are crowded, with as many as 30 or 40 persons sleeping in halls the size of average university classrooms. However, there has been no complaints from the internees on that score.

The coffee growing region of Brazil is said to contain the only perfect conditions in the world for that commodity. It has the proper soil climate and rainfall necessary for the crop.

SOME DO, SOME DON'T

Since the plan of collecting rents from properties owned by the county has been started, some rather interesting sidelights have developed. There are some properties which have been owned by the county for some time upon which the tenants have been paying no rent. Nobody ever asked them for it, so they didn't pay.

Other properties have been rented and the rents have been collected by the former owner. Whether or not a demand will be made upon the former owners for rents back to the day the county took the properties over, is a question.

Some of the properties are buildings formerly owned by fraternal organizations but which were lost through non-payment of taxes. Whether or not they will be charged rent is not known yet.

The agents of the county, Wesley Wavy and C. Herbert Martin, are getting their office into shape to open formally on Monday, Sept. 21.

COSTLY TREE

(International News Service)

VANCOUVER, B. C.—Logger Jack Summerfield felled a huge old Douglas fir—and it cost him $350. The owners of the property on which the tree was located said they intended to leave the landmark standing. County Court Judge C. J. Lennox issued a judgment against the logger for the $350.

The barn swallow and nighthawk hold the long distance records for migrant land birds. They nest in Alaska and northern Canada in summer, cross the equator to the pampas of Argentine and Paraguay in winter.

Mrs. Elizabeth Myers, of South Mulberry street, is getting along as well as can be expected. Over a week ago, she had the misfortune to fall in her home, and sustained painful injuries to her back, and other severe body bruises.

Mr. and Mrs. David Rowland and son David, Jr., of Park avenue and Mrs. O. J. Davies of Martin street have returned from visiting with their sons, Cadet Billy Rowland and Cadet John Davies of Jefferson Barracks, Mo. The Davies had just an hour and a half visit with their son, as he with 21 others had orders to be transferred. This was the first separation of the two lads, Cadet Davies and Cadet Rowland, who were raised and schooled together.

NORTH MAHONING P. T. A.

North Mahoning township P. T. A. held a meeting Thursday evening at the Dewberry school with Mrs. Harry Kretzer presiding over the meeting.

Featured on the evening's program, which was in charge of Mrs. Frances Cracraft, was the showing of "Aircraft Warning Service and Civilian Defense" pictures by Adrian Supple of the Bell Telephone company.

The group was addressed by Superintendent John C. Syling and heard a duet sung by Dorothy Siddall and Betty Willy. Also, during the evening, there was group singing.

At the close of the evening a lunch was served.

Geneva Freshman

Miss Mary Louise Williams, who graduated from Shenango high school in June, has entered Geneva College as a freshman.

An honor student in high school, she was awarded a scholarship to Geneva, where she plans to major in English.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Williams of the Butler road.

Tripps Will Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew J. Tripp, of Highland avenue, left Thursday for Boston, Mass., where they will visit their daughter, Mrs. E. J. Kinter and their grandson, Pvt. Godfrey Moore, who is on furlough from the army hospital at Fort Bragg, N. C. Mr. and Mrs. Tripp expect to make a visit of about a month in Boston.

If the people are not yet awake, it is only because they are waiting for a leader's voice that sounds like Reveille.

RECORD SPUD PLANTS
(International News Service)

VANCOUVER, B. C.—Mrs. C. Edikson has no use for her grocery store's specials on potatoes. She grows them herself—in record sizes.

One of her potato plants in a plot of Early Rose spuds has grown 78 inches long. "And that's not the only big one," she proudly adds. "Many are over five feet."

Governor May Cut Speed Limit

Motorists May Be Required To Observe 35-Mile Speed On Highways

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Sept. 18.—Gov. Arthur H. James was understood to be considering invoking a 35-mile speed limit for motorists in order to conserve tires and gasoline in line with a request by President Roosevelt.

The governor was said to be of the opinion that he has the power to lower the speed limit under a provision in the motor vehicle code which states that the limit shall be reasonable to insure the safety of motorists and the lives and property of other people.

Attorney General Claude T. Reno has been asked to study the law to make sure the governor has the power to reduce the present 50-mile limit and fix penalties to make the reduced speed effective. A lower speed limit for the Pennsylvania turnpike also will be ordered but the maximum will not be as low as that for state highways. At present it is 70 miles an hour.

The reduction in the speed limit was recommended by the Baruch committee which recently reported to the President following an investigation of the rubber situation. One of the committee's recommendations was for a national 35-mile-an-hour speed limit to conserve rubber tires. It is expected that the President will soon issue an executive order establishing such a limit on a nationwide basis.

In the event Pennsylvania authorities find they cannot enforce the President's order under existing state statutes, it was believed the next legislature would be asked to amend the motor vehicle law when it convenes in January. The legislature refused to reduce the speed limit to 40 miles at a previous session.

OCD NOTES

Activities Of O. C. D. Workers Are Outlined In This Column

Fifty-four auxiliary policemen have qualified, taken the oath of office and will be among the A. P. at Taggart Stadium, Saturday night. The auxiliary police is composed of some of the best men in local life. A score have informed Police Chief W. G. McMullen they will help as guards Saturday night when the show is held at Taggart stadium.

Approximately 70 auxiliary policemen convened with organization President Russell Melvin, in city hall, Wednesday night. They witnessed some air raid pictures provided by the Bell Telephone Company. It would not be surprising were the organization to become one of the outstanding bodies in the entire OCD movement. It is a harmonious organization.

Sub-committee is trying to arrange a division of the $1,200 raised when a highly successful boxing show was held at Taggart Stadium, June 21. Each body in the OCD movement will receive some of the money. The affair was most expertly staged. A net profit of $1,200 is not found every night in the city. Co-operation and harmony always count.

Just to keep the records straight for OCD workers; the city is paying the salary of Frank Sargent. He is a fireman delegated to act as chief air raid warden. The city pays several days of the week's salary of the stenographer and the state pays the balance. The city buys stamps and writing paper for the office.

It is likely that not more than two of 45 alleged blackout violators are "before the board." In one case an investigation to discover who turned on the lights is under way. On every other night the lights were out, it is reported. In some cities, fines which at first were laden with lead have been reduced.

The "unlock your car" proposition isn't very popular. Some people carry valuable goods or articles in their cars and when they lock them they guard against possible thievery. Police authorities for years have been trying to educate the public to lock cars. No one knows when a "black-out is coming.

Charles Bentley is president of the Rescue Squad. He has asked all members to meet at 7 p. m. Friday in the Central fire department.

Names of wardens who have been certified will be published only after they have been approved by the city OCD.

Four Agencies Under McNutt

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18. — Extending the power and authority already invested in Paul V. McNutt, chairman of the war manpower commission, President Roosevelt today issued an executive order officially placing four government agencies and their functions under the man power chieftain.

The agencies transferred were.

1. The United States Employment Service and all functions, duties, and powers of the Social Security board in the federal security agency relating to employment service.

2. The National Youth Administration in the federal security agency.

3. The apprenticeship training service.

4. The training-within-industry service in the office of the federal security administrator.

As federal security administrator—a post he still holds——McNutt actually has been the head of the agencies which today were officially put under his authority as head of the manpower commission.

Dedication At Ecclesian Club

New Bowling Alleys In Club Headquarters Formally Dedicated

Men and women of the Ecclesian club and guests gathered Thursday evening in the club building on South Jefferson street for the program which marked the dedication of the club's new bowling alleys.

Following the invocation delivered by Rev. Fr. Albert M. Intesto of St. Vitus church, Ray McAuley, master of ceremonies for the evening, was introduced by Paul Ellsworth.

William A. Francis, first speaker on the program, spoke on the "Benefits of Organization," commenting particularly on the progress that the Ecclesian club is making through its organization.

Principal address was that given by the spiritual advisor to the club, Rev. Fr. Peter M. Schirra, pastor of St. Joseph's church. His topic was "Youth" and stressed especially the value of sports in dealing with young people.

Preceding Fr. Schirra's talk, Rev. Fr. Francis J. Streiff of St. Mary's church, president of the Ecclesian club, Francis W. Frey and Rev. Fr. Weisenberger of Butler, Pa., made brief appropriate remarks.

Prayer for boys in the armed forces was led by Rev. Fr. E. F. Rowan of Leechburg.

At this point in the program, the group were led into the bowling alleys, where the first balls were rolled down them by Fr. Schirra.

After the dedication, cards and dancing in the recreation room gave entertainment for the remainder of the evening.

Women of the Ecclesian club who formed the refreshment committee which served lunch were Mrs. William Clingen, Mrs. Francis W. Frey, Mrs. Clarence Brown, Mrs. Maurice Neilson, Mrs. Frank Leonard, Mrs. Albert Laurel, and Mrs. Victor Truschel

Welcome committee was F. W. Frey and Ray McAuley.

Cards committee: Joe Factor, Lawrence Broschart and C. W. Bauers. Dance committee: C. W. Brown, Stanley Koprowski, C. W. Klaber and Mike King.

General committee was Sam Ross, Jacob DeFonso, Maurice Neilson, L. W. Houk, Leonard Krueger, Frank Haas, and F. J. Frey.

Volant Faculty Member Is Dead

Matron Of Old School Dies In Rogers, O., Funeral Is Saturday

Word has been received here of the death of Lizzie Carr, matron at Volant college when it was founded and who continued in this position until the school closed, which took place at Rogers, O.

Funeral services will take place at the Carmel cemetery, Rogers, O., Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and will be largely attended by members of the Volant College Alumni Association, who held her in high esteem. She had made her home with Prof. Asher A. Galbreath, the founder of the school, during her later years.

MOTHER DIES AT CUMBERLAND, MD.

Fred Fisher of Plaingrove, and Raymond Fisher of Sheets street, this city, have been called to Cumberland, Md., because of the death of their mother, Mrs. Walter Fisher, who died following a paralytic stroke suffered on Tuesday.

She leaves her husband, four daughters and another son, all of Cumberland. On September 2, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher quietly celebrated their 64th wedding anniversary.

Interment is to be made in Pleasant Valley cemetery Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

"Keep Healthy" One Way To Help Win War

You are writing letters to the service men you know, you are taking a first aid course, you are putting a percentage of your pay into war savings bonds, you are working hard at your job, and still you may be asking, "What can one person at home do to help win the war?"

For civilians on the home front, the answer, according to an Institute of Life insurance bulletin recently issued, is "Keep well—do your best to keep from being sick and losing time or spreading illness."

Because by the end of this year nearly one-third of America's total medical force will be away at war—35,000 nurses and 40,000 physicians and dentists. And by keeping well we save the remaining doctors' time for serious and unavoidable sickness and accident.

As Dr. Thomas Parran, surgeon general, U. S. Public Health Service, says, if each individual accepts the responsibility for sticking to a few simple ways of healthful living, the total of improved personal health of "millions of American men and women, will make an incalculable contribution to victory."

Boiled down to brass tacks, this means: 1. Eat right; 2. Get your rest; 3. See your doctor once a year; 4. Keep clean; 5. Play some every day. Not exciting, not heroic stuff, this, no, but if you are asking what you can do that will really help us win the war, this is a place to start.

Eat right. This means three ... a day, including plenty of the key foods—milk, butter, eggs, fish, meat, cheese, beans and peas, fruit, green leafy vegetables and the yellow ones, whole grain or enriched cereals, and bread.

Get your rest. You can't catch up on lost sleep or missed relaxation. Regularity counts most. Go to bed on time, get up on time. Take it easy for a little while after lunch and dinner.

See your doctor once a year. Do as much for your body as you do for your car. You have it checked and serviced every thousand miles—give your doctor a chance to prevent illness BEFORE you get sick. Go to see him.

Keep clean. Plenty of baths, lots of soap. Clean hands, clothes, houses, beds. Get fresh air and sunshine. Drink lots of water.

Play some every day. Remember what "all work and no play" does to Jack. Romp with the family, visit with friends, take walks, play games—do whatever you enjoy to give your mind and body a change from the daily grind on the job.

The phrase, "the forgotten man," is attributed to William Graham Sumner, who used the expression in a lecture in 1883.

Rail Removal In Pittsburgh Is Not Approved

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 18.—A project that would have netted 320 tons of vitally-needed scrap had failed today to win approval of Pittsburgh's city council. The measure was rejected by a tie ballot.

Assured in advance that the WPA would do the work and foot the bill, councilmen, nevertheless, were unable to agree on the ordinance and the split vote caused its rejection. The measure proposed removal of abandoned street car rails in Pittsburgh for the scrap drive.

Councilman John Duff, Jr., one of the men who voted against it, said he did so because the project would have cost $25,000 for 320 tons of scrap. He added that "if the condition as to the scrap iron becomes acute, I am in favor of legislation no matter what the cost involved."

To Gather Wool Pool Next Week

Dates Are Set By Lawrence County Wool Growers For Ingathering Of Crop

Dates for the annual wool pool of the Lawrence County Wool Growers' Association have been set for next week. The crop was sold last Friday evening to the Kenneth W. Marriner Company, of Boston, Mass., when bids were opened at a meeting in the Y.M.C.A.

On Tuesday, September 22, the wool will be graded, weighed, and loaded at the B. and O. station in Butler, Pa., for all those residing nearest Butler county.

On Wednesday, September 23, the remainder of the growers from Butler county, those from Beaver county, and North Beaver township, will bring their wool to the B. and O. station in New Castle.

On Thursday, September 24, all the remainder of Lawrence county, will be served at the B. and O. station here.

The hours are from 7:30 a.m. until 4 p.m. on Tuesday and Wednesday, and 7:30 a.m. until 3 p.m. on Thursday.

W. B. Connell, wool expert from Penn State College, who has been grading the local pool for a number of years, will be present to assist with the task again this year.

Believe Some Big New Jap Move To Develop Shortly

Several Moves Are Conjectured

Attack On Russia Or India Are Among Possible Steps By Japanese

FLEET MAY ATTACK SOME U. S. POSITION

By KINGSBURY SMITH
(U. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—There is a strong belief in official and diplomatic circles in Washington today that the "zero hour" is rapidly approaching for some big new Japanese move.

The most likely developments are seen, in the order of their expectations, as follows:

1. A Japanese attack on Siberia when Stalingrad falls; 2. A Nippon invasion of India; 3. A major attack by the Japanese fleet against a vital American position.

Look For Russian Drive

The development which would cause the least surprise would be the Japanese stab-in-the-back at Russia. For this reason, there is a tendency to be on the lookout for a move somewhere else.

India is considered the second most logical place for the Japanese to strike. With widespread political unrest over Britain's refusal to grant that country immediate independence, and with Mohandas Gandhi's civil disobedience campaign against British rule scheduled to get under full swing within a few weeks, it is thought that India must present a tempting objective to the Japanese.

The mere fact that Siberia and India appear the most logical objectives of a new Japanese move leads some official and diplomatic observers to believe Tokyo may try to pull another Pearl Harbor type of surprise on the United States.

However, the general concensus of opinion is that circumstances point to Russia as the No. 1 likely objective of Japan's next big move.

Bible Class Gives Farewell Dinner

Davis Bible Class Honors Teacher At Farewell Tureen Dinner Party

On Thursday evening, the Davis Bible class, of the Mahoningtown Methodist church, gave a farewell tureen dinner in the dining room of the church in honor of the class teacher, Rev. D. J. Blasdell.

The invocation was given by Rev. Blasdell.

Mrs. Wendell McClurg and Mrs. Fred Wettich were the dinner committee.

Mrs. John Phillips had charge of the entertainment.

A lovely gift was presented to the honored guest by the class president, Fred Wettich, on behalf of the members. Rev. Blasdell graciously responded.

SOCIETY AUXILIARY TO GIVE DRAFTEES FAREWELL PARTY

On Sunday evening at 5 o'clock members of the Christopher Columbus Society Auxiliary will give a farewell dinner party at Christopher Columbus Hall in honor of the following young men of Mahoningtown who expect to leave next week for induction into U. S. service —Louis Frank Domenick, John Masters, Ralph Lombardo, Tony Nocera, Joe Lombardo, Alexander Orlando, Guy Galliano, Louis Patsy Domenick, Louis Castrucci. Louis Ezzo, president of Christopher Columbus society will be special guest.

Angeline Garofalo is chairlady of arrangements.

CAR HELPER HURT

Gurino C. Orlando, aged 37 years, of 303 West Wabash avenue, was treated at the Jameson Memorial hospital late Thursday morning for a contusion of the left index finger. Orlando, who is a car helper at the Pennsylvania R. R., was using an air hammer to blank out a rivet, when it slipped through the rivet hole, catching his finger.

AIR WARDENS TO MEET ON SATURDAY EVENING

At 7 o'clock, Saturday evening, the Air Wardens and First Aid of the four districts of the ward, will meet at the intersection of East Lutton street and Cunningham avenue. Eighteen Air Raid Wardens and First Aid Students of the first, third, and fourth districts have completed their course and will be certified at the meeting, Monday evening, at the Mahoning Methodist church.

DRUGGIST VISITS FRIENDS IN WARD

C. P. Pinkerton of New Brighton, Neb., a druggist who was employed in the drug store of A. C. Hyde in the ward for many years, was a visitor Thursday with friends here. He is visiting with his son Alfred and family of Carlisle street.

VISITING SOLDIER AT CAMP HOSPITAL

Mrs. Howard Culbertson, of North Cedar street, and Mrs. W. E. Turk, of Mt. Jackson road, have left for Fort Belvoir, Virginia, where they will visit Sergeant S. L. Turk, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Turk, of North Liberty street, who has been confined to the hospital there.

MAKES SHORT VISIT

Seaman First Class Glen Searfoss of Bay Shore, N. Y., has returned to his station, after a leave of 24 hours visiting with his aunt, Mrs. Frank Reinhart of 205 West Madison avenue.

ENHANCES APPEARANCE

One of the dwellings in the 400 block of Newell avenue, is having some improvements made to it in the form of a new porch, and imitation brick siding. This has already enhanced the appearance of the house.

WEARING ARCTICS!

Folks in the ward Thursday afternoon were somewhat surprised to see a man walking along Liberty street wearing four-buckle overshoes. The weather was of the summer variety, and it gave them visions of winter in the offing.

SEVENTH WARD PERSONALS

Jake Beighley of Wurtemburg, formerly of the ward, visited Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hilliard of West Clayton street.

Mrs. Thomas Foster of Sixth street is confined to her home with illness.

Richard Cangey of 112 Wilder avenue has recovered sufficiently to return to his home from the New Castle hospital.

A. L. Dalton of 923 North Cedar street, who underwent treatment for pleurisy at the Jameson Memorial hospital, has been returned to his home, much improved.

Albert Lombardo, formerly of Pittsburgh, is now residing at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Antonette Lombardo and family, West Wabash avenue. He is employed at the Penna. R. R. car shops.

Fred Theiss Jr. of 923 North Cedar street is receiving treatment for pneumonia at the Jameson Memorial hospital, also for the double fracture of a leg. His condition remains about the same.

Round Present Electric Awards In Quaker City

Pennsylvania Power Company Receives Group 1 Certificate Of Merit

(Special To The News)

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 18.—Winners were announced this morning in the annual safety award contest sponsored by the Pennsylvania Electric association. Meeting here for its annual business conference, this association saw President L. B. Round of New Castle award trophies to the Metropolitan Edison company, Reading, and the Erie County Electric company.

These awards are made annually to the electric service companies in Pennsylvania having the fewest accidents in relation to the number of employee exposure hours. Companies are divided into two groups —Group 1 comprising companies with more than 500 employees and Group II, those with less than 500 employees.

This year's Group I trophy for the larger companies was won by Metropolitan Edison company, Reading, with the outstanding record of only four accidents involving loss of time in 2,839,096 employee exposure hours. Group II trophy went to the Erie County Electric company who had a perfect no-accident record with 480,173 employee exposure hours.

Certiifcates of merit were awarded to two Group I companies—Pennsylvania Edison company, Altoona, and Pennsylvania Power company, New Castle. Two of the Group II companies also were awarded certificates. These were the South Penn Power company, Waynesboro, and the Natrona Light & Power company. Both of these companies had perfect no-accident reports but had fewer exposure hours than the trophy winner in Group II.

RED CROSS KNITTING

Mrs. Klamers group and the King Humberto Auxiliary will knit for the American Red Cross this evening in the home of Mrs. Rizzo, Pollock avenue.

Ignorant statesmen aren't new. Our hardest job is the taking of islands that our dumb leaders virtually gave to Japan after the other war.

DUCKS JOIN FIREMEN

(International News Service)

SUN VALLEY, Ida.—Sun Valley's volunteer fire department was today augmented by six surprising new members. During a practise fire alarm employees rushed from all buildings for the fire engine situated at the village garage. Six mallard ducks, peacefully trotting along the village duck-pond, were attracted by the commotion and lickety-split followed the firemen to the engine in stately single file.

World Badly Needs Spiritual Awakening Is View Of Babson

By ROGER W. BABSON

(Copyright, 1942, Publishers Financial Bureau, Inc.)

NEW YORK CITY, Sept. 18.—Readers know that I feel World Wars I and II have come about because the leading nations during the past 50 years have been trying to get on without God. Furthermore, when asked how long the war is to last, I reply: "If it is fought to a finish, it will end only when we repent of our sins, readjust our wasteful standards of living and once more make God the ruler of our homes, schools, businesses and nation."

BABSON

Why Business Depressions Ocur

As my column is supposed to cover only business, real estate, finance, etc., it is perhaps out of place to preach this kind of sermon. I, however, feel that it is absolutely impossible, in the long run, to separate the material from the spiritual. Neither can be put in an air-tight compartment. One is the lock and the other is the key and neither can function without the other. Statistics, moreover, clearly teach the following about the business cycle:

Starting at a normal level, business improves until it gets into a period of prosperity. This prosperity develops dishonesty, carelessness, inefficiency and waste which, in turn, result in a business depression. The business depression must continue until the majority of our people repent and substitute honesty for dishonesty, industry for carelessness, efficiency for inefficiency, and thrift for waste. These qualities of honesty, industry, efficiency and thrift lay the foundation for the next period of prosperity that follows.

We Must Learn To Sacrifice

Once was the time when economists taught that all wealth is a result of only three factors—land, labor and capital. Now it is being recognized that there is an additional factor, namely sane religion. Let me illustrate: You see a street upon which a man is working with a pick. This is a perfect illustration of "land, labor and capital". The street is the "land", the man is the "labor" and the pick is the "capital". Yet, you well know that this combination can be used equally well in destroying the street or in repairing the street according to the religious motives of the man. Hence, it is impossible to fully cover the business and financial situation without a consideration of religion which determines how land, labor and capital are to be used.

The above is especially important at this time when we hear so much about inflation, rationing, price fixing, etc. Once again I commend Leon Henderson in his desperate attempts to control the purchases of 130,000,000 of people by legislation and policemen. On the other hand, I have certain sympathy with the congressmen who, at the risk of being ridiculed, honestly believe that giving Mr. Henderson more power would only further complicate the situation. The fact is that inflation can be stopped only as the hearts and desires and purposes of the American people change. Only as we desire to make greater personal sacrifices and voluntarily reduce the standard of living can we curb inflation. This means that only a spiritual awakening can stop it.

What About Life?

Donald Nelson goes to the United States Treasury and asks for $250,000 to buy a bomber. Ultimately the bomber is destroyed but the $250,000 continues in existence. Multiply this situation a millionfold and you see that money is increasing much more rapidly than useful goods. Only a determined willingness on the part of the people to adjust their buying to this dangerous situation can prevent an ultimate loss of confidence in the American dollar and a stampede to buy merchandise, real estate and certain good stocks. This means that we should think less of unions, overtime and profits; think less of 110 per cent parity, wheat hoarding and subsidies; think less of getting fictitious prices for silver, live stock and other products; think less of beating the ration boards, and give more thought to beating the Japs and Jerrys.

Whenever I write along the above lines a flood of letters comes in asking me what I mean by a spiritual awakening and how we should adjust our lives thereto. To head off these inquiries, I close with five thoughts prepared by one of my readers—E. W. Vacher of Station A, Route 1, New Orleans, La. Here they are:

1. Life is like a ladder, every step we take is either up or down.
2. Life is a trust that must be accounted for to God, the soul of the universe.
3. Life demands that we be decent and cooperate with every good that we can, and be happy in "learning the luxury of doing good".
4. Life proves that nothing worthwhile and well done is ever wasted. If we do our best in everything we do, we will become able to do still better. Also, let us remember that moderation in everything is the key to good health. "Waste not, want not;—live and let live".
5. Life requires that if we want real true friends, we must be sincere ourselves and be trustworthy in everything, helping to make the world a better place to live in.

When the nation—and especially its leaders in Washington—base their actions on these five principles, we will have a spiritual awakening.

Daily Dozen

(From the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania)

The death rate from tuberculosis in 1941 was a record low.

It has declined continuously for 20 years.

The war may change this picture.

In all warring countries, tuberculosis deaths increase.

There is decreased resistance due to longer working hours.

There is strain, anxiety and broken rest.

Inadequate diet and overcrowded homes aid tuberculosis.

Some industrial hygiene programs are temporarily discontinued.

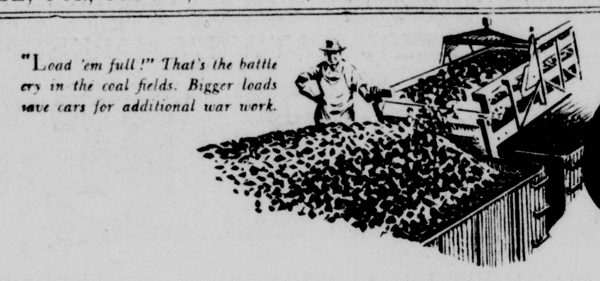

Lack of cleansing materials, such as soap, breeds the disease.

Tuberculosis has already increased in most warring nations.

Efforts are being made to maintain peace time health standards.

The public must cooperate with health authorities in this.

"Load 'em full!" That's the battle cry in the coal fields. Bigger loads save cars for additional war work.

COAL

★ ★ ★ ANOTHER "FIGHTING FORCE" TO KEEP ROLLING!

Coal is one of America's most powerful weapons—the Nation's greatest single source of energy.

It turns the wheels of war's industries.

It is power and heat and light.

Coal makes steam. It runs trains to haul more coal. Coal is transportation. Coal provides warmth for our home comfort, heats our buildings and factories.

It is among the most abundant of the Nation's natural resources and in the earth of this country is enough to last 3,000 years.

More than a hundred thousand Pennsylvania Railroad freight cars have no other duty in this war than to haul this fighting power—coal and its by-product, coke—to the industrial fronts, day and night.

In never-ending streams, The Pennsylvania delivers it to the power plants, moves mountains of it to feed the coke ovens and, in turn, the blast furnaces.

Coal becomes gas for the open hearth, power for the rolling mill. Without it there would be no steel.

Coal's by-products become explosives, industrial chemicals, medicines and fertilizer that produces agricultural abundance.

Coal saw us through the last war—and coal will see us through this one.

To help move coal to the industrial front is one of Pennsylvania Railroad's most important jobs in war and peace.

BEST WHEAT CROP

(International News Service)

ITHACA—Judged the best wheat crop in 25 years, 1942 yields are equal or better than the famous 1938 bumper crop, says Dr. Frank P. Bussell of Cornell. Following a tour of New York state wheat fields, Dr. Bussell stated that because of heavy rains which prevented harvesting with combines, much wheat is still uncut in the fields. A total of 300,000 acres of wheat was grown in the state and a yield of 40 bushels an acre was not uncommon on some farms.

The failure of so many commissions teaches us that whatever makes a famous guy famous, it isn't common sense.

Little Chance Of Overseas Soldiers Getting To Vote

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.— Secretary of War Stimson reported today there was little likelihood soldiers serving overseas could vote in the November elections under the new absentee ballot law.

He noted the War Department already had advised the budget bureau that the army was prepared to administer the law "within but not without" the continental United States.

"In the vast majority of cases," Stimson told a press conference questioner, it would be unfeasible for soldiers overseas to vote in the next election.

Secretary Knox of the navy has objected likewise to service men abroad voting by mail. Knox said that because of the short time available election material would have to be transported overseas by plane at the expense of urgent munitions shipments, and also that military security would be endangered by disclosure of the stations of service men.

Scouts Will Aid In Demonstration

Will Appear In Uniform Wearing Insignia Used In Defense Work

Every scout and scouter in Lawrence county has been invited to take part in the huge demonstration to be staged in Taggart stadium, New Castle, tomorrow evening. All are requested to report to the Ben Franklin school side of the stadium in uniform to Ralph Davis, E. D. Hawk or the scout executive. Those who have civilian defense arm bands, either as messengers or in any other capacity, are requested to wear them.

All scouts who have been assigned to any posts in connection with defense, at the hospitals, first aid stations, control centers, fire stations, etc., will be present in uniform.

This demonstration is for the purpose of showing the people of the county how the different units of civilian defense function and it is vital that people understand these duties in order that they may cooperate to the fullest extent, in case of a real air warning.

Pearson Street Community Arranges Program To Honor Men In Service

EVENT TO TAKE PLACE SUNDAY

Arrangements have been completed, the committee in charge announces, for the dedication of a service flag by residents of the Pearson street community, when the memory of 27 men from that section now in Uncle Sam's forces will be kept alive by this banner which will float from a flagstaff along with the nation's emblem. The ceremony takes place at 3 o'clock at the corner of Pearson and Nut streets.

Angelo Casacchio will be master of ceremonies and the speakers will include Major Guy J. Wadlinger and Charles E. Allen. Color guards will be present from Perry S. Gaston Post No. 343, American Legion, and Neshannock Post No. 315, V. F. W., while Boy Scouts will be the buglers. Rev. Father Albert M. Inteso, assistant pastor of St. Vitus church, will bless the flag.

A composite band, directed by Miss Christine Giancotti, who has so faithfully served when the men were leaving for camp, will furnish music for the occasion. George Hunt of Post 315 will call the roll of those in the service and tell where they are located.

Flowers will be presented by Marine Recruiting Sergeant John Dean, Army Recruiting Sergeant William Bilpuch, and Navy Recruiting Officer C. P. O. David Ritchie. There are 25 men now in the service, 19 of whom are in the army and six in the navy, and two more have been accepted for service and will leave in a few more days, having already been inducted into service, but home on automatic furlough.

Day Of Atonement Will Be Observed

Announce Services At Tifereth Israel For Jewist Holy Day

Beginning the first day of Tichri with Rosh Hashanah (Jewish New Year), the penitential season reaches its climax on the tenth of the same month. This day is called the Day of Atonement—Yom Kippurim. This is to be a Sabbath of rest called in the Bible the Sabbath of Sabbaths and is a fast day when the Jewish people abstain from all ordinary occupations, restrain all physical cravings and devote all thoughts to the higher call of the soul.

The forgiveness of God is conditioned on man's determination to cleanse himself. This day is thus set aside for prayer and supplication for making a supreme effort to throw off all sin, to wipe out all evil and to rise to the loftier dignity of the divinity that is within man.

At Tifereth Israel Synagogue, the Day of Atonement will be ushered in this coming Sunday, September 20, at 7 p.m. with the traditionally famed service, Kol Nidre, which will be conducted by Rabbi Gilbert A. Elefant assisted by the choir of ten voices. Rabbi Elefant's sermon topic will be "The Rabbi's Role in War Time."

Monday morning, services start at 7:30 o'clock and continue all day. At the memorial service at 11 o'clock, the sermon topic will be "When the Dead Serve the Living". During these services, there will be special prayers conducted and special memorial prayers given for soldiers, sailors and aviators in our service. solemn prayers will be read on behalf of our government and our people and all democracies in this hour of trial.

Monday afternoon, the whole day meditation of the Day of Atonement will be concluded with the special prayer called Neelah.

War Production Head Is Named

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—Stripping the army and navy of many of their powers, Donald M. Nelson, chairman of the war production board, today invested in Charles E. Wilson, president of the General Electric Co., the full authority to work out war production programs and schedules in order to end present confusion.

Taking another step in his "get tough" policy, Nelson gave Wilson both the title of vice chairman of the WPB and chairman of a newly organized production executive committee. With creation of the committee, Nelson virtually threw out of the window the old army and navy munitions board, which heretofore had advised the WPB on programs in producing planes, tanks, guns and ships.

MESS CALL FOR K. P.

(International News Service)

MIAMI BEACH, Fla.—This story's moral is "It doesn't pay to be a chow hound." Members of a squadron at this AAF Technical Training Command post got up early to be first in line for breakfast. The mess hall doors shut after the first 40 men entered. Through an error the KP's scheduled to work at the mess hall hadn't appeared, and the first men in chow line were "shanghaied" to take their place.

Richman Brothers Clothes
are as Fine as Ever

Many of our customers ask us, "Are your clothes as good as they were before the war?" Our answer is "Yes"—emphatically.

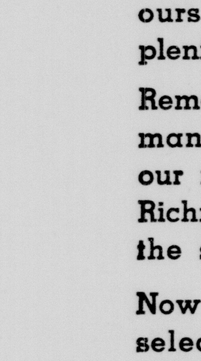

True, there are government restrictions on the production of woolens. But, we bought ours many months ago, and still have plenty of all-wool suits.

Remember, too, that good, honest workmanship built this great business and our matchless reputation—and the same Richman Tailoring Family is still doing the same good job of clothes making.

Now is the best possible time to buy. The selection is bigger, more complete. The store is less rushed, and you will get more attention and better fitting service.

Messages For Yank Prisoners Should Be Filed

Notes To Men Who Are Captives Of Japs In Far East Will Go On Gripsholm

Miss Thyra J. Fulton, Executive Director Home Service Department, Lawrence County Chapter of the American Red Cross, has just received the following news released from the National office:

"Relatives and friends of unidentifeid prisoners of war or military men missing in action in the Far East are urged by the American Red Cross to go immediately to their local Red Cross Chapter and file messages to them. The messages will be carried on the exchange ship "Gripsholm," soon to sail on its second voyage.

To send a message the procedure is as follows:

First, the message is to be filed with local Chapter of the Red Cross on Form 1616.

Second, complete information as to name, rank, military unit and last known address must be given.

Third, where possible, relatives and friends should join in sending one message.

Fourth, the message must be confined to 25 words.

The American Red Cross announces that these messages will be mailed on the "Gripsholm," addressed to the International Red Cross delegate in Japan, who will make every effort to see that they are delivered. The Red Cross can give no assurance of delivery, but this method has been adopted in agreement with State, War, Navy, and Post Office Departments, because the Japanese government has not yet furnished official lists of the majority of American prisoners held in the Far East.

County Freshmen Enter Penn State

State College Has Record Enrollment; Co-eds Help Swell Total

(Special To The News)

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Sept. 18.—A record freshman class totaling more than 2100 students has been enrolled at the Pennsylvania State College for the fall semester, according to figures released by the registrar.

Moyer, 310 Fountain avenue, metallurgy.

From Enon Valley: Oscar L. Paden, R. D. 2, agricultural education.

FORMER LOCAL GIRL ACCEPTED AS WAVE

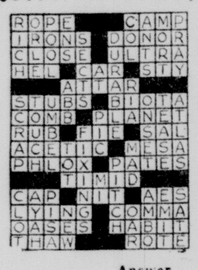

Miss Carolyn Garvin, of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., daughter of Herbert Lewis Garvin, onetime resident of New Castle, now living in Fort Lauderdale, has been sworn in as a member of the WAVES to begin training for an ensign rank in the women's branch of the U. S. Naval Reserve.

Miss Garvin has been assistant professor of the home economics department at Florida Southern College, Lakeland, Fla., since 1938. She received a Bachelor of Science Degree from Florida State College for Women in 1936. She is a member of Lakeland B. P. W. club.

She, with her sister Virginia, who may try to join the WAACS, had spent a summer vacation in Pensecola, Fla., priod to taking the rigid WAVE examinations.

When a girl's called a "drag" by an army man, she is in camp with an escort.

Maturo Praises Wake Isle Film

Marine Corps League Member Also Saw Preview Of Picture In Chicago

"'Wake Island' doesn't pull punches," said Ralph Maturo today when asked what he thought of the film which is to be shown for one performance the night of September 28. Mr. Maturo is a trustee of the Gy. Sergt. Harry T. Burns detachment of the Marine Corps league which is sponsoring, with the local motion picture exhibitors, "Wake Island" in the interests of the September war bond drive. Mr. Maturo witnessed a private showing of "Wake Island" while attending the Marine Corps league convention in Chicago.

"'Wake Island' will thrill New Castle," Mr. Maturo continued. "It is the most dramatic and exciting movie I have ever seen and it will be a stirring inspiration to every on-looker. Paramount has performed a great and noble service in putting this mighty emotional assault on the screen. It will make every one who sees it realize that men died on that far Pacific outpost for an ideal and that countless thousands more are to die before the United Nations' aim is accomplished."

"Wake Island" is not only the story of our fighting forces under fire. There are wallop-packed sequences which deal with human values—the family ties of the men, and the gallant relationship among the men themselves. It is a patriotism-arouser such as the movie industry has never before turned out, and it will strengthen the heart and moral fiber of every American who sees it.

The highest praise is due every person who had a part in the making of "Wake Island," and every American should see this stirring reproduction of a brilliant chapter in the history of this war.

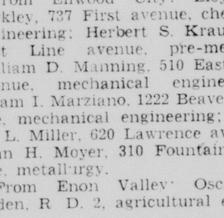

FALL INSTITUTE

WPA certified defense recreation program's 1942 fall training institute will be held at the Warrington Recreation center, Pittsburgh beginning September 21 and continuing through September 25. National and state leaders will participate. The B. T. W. center will be closed during that week but will reopen September 28. Members of the Matrons club are asked to meet at 8 p. m. September 28.

Alley Rats Have Annual Reunion

Twenty-Seventh Annual Gathering Takes Place At Muddy Creek Falls

For the twenty seventh year the Alley Rats met in reunion Thursday September 17 when they held their annual get together at Muddy Creek Falls. This year proved to be the banner year in point of attendance, 75 being present. From as far as Milwaukee, Wis., and as far east as Nazareth, Pa., the members of the old gang came back nor were they disappointed at the warmth of their welcomes.

Early in the afternoon the "Rats" began to gather at the football camp where the reunions are always held. Skeet shooting and horseshoes were the sports engaged in although the biggest entertainment of the day was the meeting of old friends. At seven o'clock the crowd sat down to a chicken dinner that was prepared and served in typical Alley Rat style. After dinner a short business meeting was held with President Frank "Fritz" B. Harlan presiding. Short addresses were made by Dave Long, Sam McGoun, Meyer Berkman of Beaver Falls, B. N. Hanlon and Earl D. "Cap" Harlan. C. W. Herman Hess delivered the principal address of the evening and conducted a short memorial service in memory of thos who hve gone on.

At the election of officers the same men were named who were elected 27 years ago. The list, which has been intact since the reunion was founded follows. President, Frank B. "Fritz" Harlan, vice president, William J. Connery; secretary, Earl D. "Cap" Harlan; treasurer, Edward J. Connery.

Moving around the crowd at the reunion one saw such out of town visitors as John "Dutch" Overbeck of Cleveland, Ed McDaniell and his son from Oil City; William Hogue and Kenneth Hayes of Meadville; Meyer Berkman of Beaver Falls; Tom Crowther, of Pittsburgh, Jim McGuffin, of Canton, O., John Russell of Youngstown, O., Roy Bowser of Nazareth, Dale "Pete" Hill of Milwaukee, Wis.; Bill Figley of Canton, O., Lou Harlan of Sandusky, O., and Bill Braden of Youngstown. Special guests were Judges W. Walter Braham and John G. Lamoree and Lieutenant Ben E. Nessle, Jr., home on leave from Fort Monmouth, N. J.

It was an unusual reunion. All Alley Rat reunions are.

In a community known for the number and quality of its reunions, the Alley Rat reunion stands out as one of the leaders. It brings together a gang of youngsters who once were banded together in the bonds of athletics and sociability. Today those bonds are firmer than ever and each passing year strengthens them.

SIBERIAN TROOPS AID IN DEFENSE OF STALINGRAD

mans again had succeeded in penetrating the outskirts of Stalingrad by literally overwhelming the Russian forces.

Soviet tanks and infantry immediately went over to the offensive in two neighboring sectors while the Germans launched heavy attacks at another point.

The noon-day communique, however, said that German tank and infantry forces ramming the defenses in the northwestern outskirts were repelled.

In one sector, two German battalions broke through into one of the streets of Stalingrad but the enemy troops were routed and 500 Nazis were killed.

Lash At Nazis

On another sector, two German companies and 12 tanks were wiped out, when the Russian troops and units of the civilian army lashed at the enemy spearheads.

However, there were indications that the Germans had reached the Volga northwest of Stalingrad. One report from the front told of the capture of four enemy guns on the bank of the river.

(The Vichy radio, which is German controlled, claimed that Nazi troops which reached the Volga after cutting Stalingrad "in two" have concluded preparations for an attack against Krasnaja and Sloboda on the east bank of the river and directly opposite the Stalingrad civic center, Reuters (British) news agency reported.

(Earlier, the Vichy radio claimed that a "few" German tanks and vehicles obtained a footing on two islands in the Volga river and were in "control" of the western arm of the stream. It was further claimed that on Thursday morning the Germans attacked an "important" suburb of Stalingrad on the east bank of the Volga and opposite the center of the city.)

Report Nazi Losses

In one counter-attack launched by the Russians northwest of Stalingrad, the Germans were reported to have lost 1,000 men, four tanks, 48 anti-tank guns and 60 lorries laden with infantry were subjected to direct artillery hits. These accounts from the battlefront described the Soviet counter-attack as "fierce".

The heavy assaults by Marshal Semyon Timoshenko were viewed as a concerted effort in "smashing up" the enemy's spearheads of tanks and infantry.

The high command's noon communique said that Soviet units launched attacks in the Mozdok area of the central Caucasus where the Nazi push toward the Grozny oil fields has been blunted. One German infantry company was wiped out and four tanks were destroyed.

In fighting southeast of Novorossisk, the important Black sea naval port which fell to the Germans several days ago, one enemy infantry company and three tanks were destroyed in two days of fighting.

Red Star, the red army newspaper, said the Germans were firmly halted southeast of Novorossisk and in one area the enemy was "ousted from three "vital" mountain passes. The newspaper said that on the south bank of the Terek river in the Mozdok area, the Soviets had taken the initiative and were pressing on "strongly" in the face of strenuous counter-attacks.

The historic order from the leader of the Russian people said that every hillock regained gains time, that every day gained may determine the ultimate issue of the battle of Stalingrad.

The Siberian reinforcements, trained at Prokojiepsk and Novosibirsk, were rushed to the imperilled city although it was not known whether they would be able to enter Stalingrad proper. They might attempt to enter the battle by crossing the Volga river but the Germans have subjected this sector to withering bombings.

However, the enemy's bombardment has not completely disrupted the ferry service across the Volga and is operating at a limited extent.

(Exchange Telegraph reported from Moscow that thousands of Siberian troops were already defending Stalingrad and the Caucasus and that "many more" trained peoples armies were enroute to the city and other fronts from Siberian cities (Reuters (British) news agency also said that Siberian reinforcements had reached Stalingrad.)

Four Sentenced For Operation Of Large Vice Ring

(International News Service)

CLEVELAND, Sept. 18.—Four white slavers who operated a lucrative multi-state vice ring today were under federal court sentences to serve from 7 to 12 years in a federal penitentiary and pay fines totalling $40,000.

Trial of the four men started Monday in U. S. District Court in Cleveland, but it came to an abrupt halt yesterday when the men pleaded guilty before Judge Emerich B. Freed.

A woman member of the ring, Vera Sili alias Vera Miller, refused to change her plea, however, and the court is scheduled to continue with her trial today.

Louis P. Morel, of Cleveland, described as the ringleader, was sentenced to 12 years; Jack Johnson, Amsterdam, N. Y., and Carl Bruell, Canton, O., were given 10 years, and Bruell's brother, Frank, received a seven-year term. Each was ordered to pay a $10,000 fine.

Testimony by women forced in to vice by the white slavers revealed the ring had operated resorts in New York City, Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Miami, Fla., Meadville, Pa., and Canton, Lorain, Youngstown and Cleveland, O.

Legion Band To Play For Bond Sale

Will Take Part In Several Activities During Coming Week

Director George Moore of the cadet band of Perry S. Gaston Post, American Legion, has requested members of the band to assemble at the band headquarters, 360 Neshannock avenue, at 7:30 o'clock Monday evenning.

The band will take part in activities arranged for the bond sales being sponsored by the local theaters that evening, and later next week, will participate in other activities along the same line.

They are asked to be out in full uniform Monday evening.

Crippled flyers receive generous care, but those who get $7500 a year and up are lame ducks.

New Castle Seeks Second Win Here Tonight

Youngstown East Foe; Expect Over 10,000 Fans

Fullback Gunn Out With Broken Bone In Right Hand; Battle Begins At 8:15 O'Clock; Ted Lash, Sam Ciccone And Tom Sanfilippo New Local Starters; Visitors' Long Suit Is Passing; Lee-Currie On Must-Watch List.

Refulgent Taggart stadium will be the cynosure of approximately 10,000 pairs of engrossed eyes as an injury-stricken New Castle high football engine valiantly seeks its second consecutive conquest at the expense of eager Youngstown East, tonight at 8:15 o'clock.

Barring an eleventh hour switch in plans, the "Hurricane" varsity string will be minus Elkins Brothers, John Zubkowsky and Jesse Gunn, who contributed immeasurably to last week's brilliant 41-0 defeat of Butler high.

Absence of the trio, sidelined by injuries, is certain to cut down the efficiency of the combination which electrified the opening night congregation.

Brothers-Gunn Out

Brothers, who is hobbling on crutches, won't see pigskin action for at least five weeks. Zubkowsky, a 6 foot 3 wingman, is troubled with a swollen left elbow which started balooning again Wednesday.

Gunn, who was shifted from the line to the fullback berth, broke a bone in his right hand during Wednesday's scrimmage and will occupy the cheering section.

Head Coach Phil Bridenbaugh today asserted that Sam Ciccone, who subbed so credibly for Zubkowsky during most of the Butler skirmish, will perform the left end chores again.

Tom Sanfilippo, a bruising athlete with stamina to burn, won Gunn's berth when Jesse was promoted to fullback and will move into the right guard precinct.

Lash To Get Job

Blondish Teddy Lash, tall, handsome and as game as a MacArthur man, has been entrusted with the unlucky fullback job. Eddie Jacobs, small but as wicked as an angered tiger, will be prepared to share Lash's duties.

With the replacements, the line formation puts Ciccone and Burris at ends; Roussos and Razzano at tackles; Joe Joseph and Sanfilippo at guards and Dave Genkinger at center.

In the ball lugging division, Bobby Lee, Mr. Legerdemain in person, and Russ Currie will hold down the halfback slots; Pete Tedesko, at quarterback, and Lash, at fullback, complete the quartet.

The local offense will be devoid of fancy stuff. Solid ground plays, mixed with simple passes, will comprise the local strategy.

Lee and Currie, whose running leaves little to be desired, have been placed on the must-watch list. If the running attack bogs down, the "Canes" may have to try the air.

East Solid Unit

East, a perennial solid unit, has enough ingredients to trouble the localites. Still smarting from that 12-0 licking last season, the Ohioans have a few aces up their sleeves.

Vicarel, No. 19 and quarterback, is one of five seasoned hands. His work last year drew the comments of the bleacherites. Andrews, at halfback, is a '41 regular, thus giving the invaders an experienced backfield.

Chico, Martin and Scherl got their fingers in the last November tussle. The remaining half dozen lads boast of better than average ability.

The blue and gold jerseyed outfit, piloted by Richard Barrett, who won his spurs at John Carroll, will probably stick to an overhead attack. The visitors flipped 19 passes in '41 and came mighty close to duplicating their 7-0 triumph of 1937.

New Castle's dressy band will load the air with ear-appealing tunes.

The gates will be swung open at 6:30 o'clock, for the students, and at 7 bells for adults.

Bessemer Eleven Battles Greenville Saturday Afternoon

Lawrence Countains Run Into Major Foe; Game Billed For Greenville

Determined to start the grid season auspiciously, Bessemer high bucks up against a big and rugged foe, Greenville high, Saturday afternoon in Greenville.

Studded with nine starters from the '41 aggregation, the local gridsters figure to develop into a strong class B combination.

Greenville, a bigger school, opened hostilities last week-end with Farrell. In dropping a 7-0 decision, the Greenies gave the Day-coached club more than one unhappy moment.

Bessemer takes the field as the underdog.

Shenango Township and Union high are on the idle list.

City League Series Starts September 27

Slovaks-Ellwood Clash In "It" Game Monday Night In Ellwood City

Lawrence county will soon have its own baseball extravaganza.

During a meeting in the Y. M. C. A. Thursday, officials and managers of the City Baseball league outlined plans for the championship series which starts on Sunday afternoon, September 27, with a double header.

The Moose, first half champion, will face either the Slovaks or the Ellwood City Socials. The second half titlist will be crowned within the next few days.

Sunday afternoon Bessemer travels to Ellwood City and could bombard the Socials' pennant hopes. Then, on Monday night, Ellwood and the Slovaks meet at Ewing Park in what shapes up as the title-teller. The rivals are deadlocked with 13 wins and 6 losses apiece.

Next Wednesday night the Slovaks play host to Bessemer on Mahoning field, thus bringing down the curtain.

Secretary Mike "Jake" Bobosky announced that the five-game series will be played without pause. Following the Sept. 17 twin bill, a twilight number will be unfurled on Wednesday, Sept. 30. On Sunday, October 4, the 1942 king will be known.

Rah-Rah Season Begins Saturday

Georgia-Kentucky Top Game; Three Service Elevens In Action

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Saturday's children, the football fans, will rush far flung stadia throughout the nation to get a preview of what promises to be the greatest season in gridiron history. Most of the tell-tale opposition—in games that should give a clear line on several college elevens—will be furnished by men now serving proudly your Uncle Sam.

The lone all-collegiate tussle without the appearance of a "breather" for either side, will be the Georgia-Kentucky slam-bang contest at Louisville. Georgia, on paper, potentially has one of the better machines in the nation. But the Colonels also are well fixed with material and should produce staunch opposition to the Dixie Bulldogs.

The service teams which will be harsh tests for their college foes are Fort Riley, Kan., Camp Grant, Ill., and Iowa Naval Cadets.

Fort Riley will face Missouri's Big Six championship eleven of last year; Camp Grant will square off with Wisconsin's Badgers and the Iowa Naval Cadets will take on Kansas.

Grapevine has it that Camp Grant will have one of, if not, the best service teams in the nation.

Saturday's Schedule

Butler vs Xavier at Indianapolis.
Auburn vs Chattanooga at Auburn.
Clemson vs Presbyterian at Clemson.
Davidson vs North Carolina State at Raleigh.
Georgia vs Kentucky at Louisville.
Iowa vs Washingotn (St. Louis) at Iowa City.
Kansas vs Iowa Naval Cadets at Lawrence.
Missouri vs Fort Riley at St. Joseph.
New Mexico vs E. N. M. college at Albuquerque.
V. M. I. vs Fort Storey at Lexington.
Virginia Poly vs Catawba at Roanoke.
Wisconsin vs Camp Grant at Madison.
Westminster vs Edinboro, New Wilmington, Pa.

Ecclesian Club Track-Field Meet Will Lure Many Top Pennsy-Ohio Stars

Headed by Stella Walsh, nationally known woman athlete, a galaxy of stars converge on Marshall field, Scott street, Sunday, for the Ecclesian club track-field meet being staged under the supervision of Joseph Factor.

One of the highlights will be a softball championship game between the Cecil A. A., Pennsylvania titlist, and Stella Walsh's Ohio champions.

Numerous western Pennsylvania and Ohio teams are entered in the gigantic event.

The affair is being held for the benefit of the Ecclesian club building fund.

SPORTS WORLD RAMBLINGS

Picked up at random:—

Stardom is predicted for Ben Keller, Ellwood City athlete. The Lawrence countian will do guard duty for Duquesne university's talented gridiron force this season. A senior, Keller has been labeled "a steamrolling blocker and crack place-kicker in the bargain." . . .

Harry Robinson, of Pikeville, Kentucky, Wednesday returned to the scene where he heard the plaudits of fandom back in the mid-twenties. Harry, unquestionally one of the greatest centers in New Castle high's history, spent part of his vacation time watching the "Canes" drill. Robby was captain in '26. . . .

Ernie Adamo, who concluded an illustrious gridiron career at Ne-Ca-Hi in '40, is being groomed for John Carroll university's (Cleveland) varsity center post. . . .

Mike Annarella, west side baseball gem, left today to join the United States Navy. The flashy infielder, a member of the Elder A. C., is the twelfth performer of the Scott street organization to trade his flannel for a service uniform. . . .

Mahoningtown's St. Margaret baseball team wiggled into the City-County baseball loop final series the hard way. The seventh warders, piloted by Louis Quarto, dropped their first 11 games. From the cellar, the Saints steamrollered everything in sight, copping 24 decisions to win a play-off berth. . . .

Georgia has an offensive mark that's hard to equal. The Bulldogs have scored at least once on every foe for the last three seasons. . . . Milt Piepul, ex-fullback star at Notre Dame, is coaching Indianapolis Cathedral high. . . .

Hal Schumacher, who recently joined the army, is the sixth Purdue grid star to answer the call to colors. . . . N. Kerr Thompson has started his 28th season as coach of Slippery Rock State Teachers college. . . .

"Lip" Durocher, who refused to permit newspapermen to the Dodgers' dressing room, will be able to play his Greta Garbo game with no interference whatsover, if his dollies blow the flag. Is there any doubt about it?

O'ROURKE NO. 2

Charley O'Rourke, former Boston College star, will be the No. 2 quarterback of the Chicago Bears this year. The top man is Sid Luckman.

Westminster Opens Season On Saturday

Localites Lineup Against Edinboro Teachers' At New Wilmington

TWO ELLWOODIANS ON TITAN ELEVEN

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Sept. 18—Two freshmen will break into the ranks of the Westminster Titans in the starting lineup in Saturday's game against Edinboro State Teachers in New Wilmington.

Walter Schumm, outstanding 160-pound Mt. Lebanon high graduate, will fill the right guard position, while Buck Mattocks, 190-pound Ellwood City freshman, will probably start at right end.

Newton Is Back

Quarterbacking will be in the hands of Joe Mastro, fleet-footed, hard-blocking Jeanette sophomore. At left half will be Dick Newton, Ellwood City senior, and at right half, Ed. Hamilton, Mt. Lebanon junior, who played center last season. Washabaugh has shifted Clyde Hopkins, Titusville senior, from the line position he held last year to the fullback post.

Other Titans sure to get into some action include Bill Scheid, Philadelphia half; Mickey McDaniels, Chester, W. Va., transfer student, in the backfield; and Mike Evanoff, Erie guard.

Last year's Westminster-Edinboro contest was cancelled because of an infantile parilysis epidemic. Saturday's game will be the season's opener for both colleges.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS LAND

Titus Monath, president of the City Duckpin loop has called a meeting of captains of teams who played last year. Teams who would like a franchise this season should attend the meeting at McCoys at 8 p. m., Monday, according to Secretary-Treasurer P. F. Kearns.

Notre Dame has scheduled most of its games this fall in large population centers to save wear and tear on fans' motor vehicles . . . Hotel New Yorker from Gotham last night won over Dormont club of Pittsburgh, 10 to 3, at Youngstown to become the only undefeated entry in the National Amateur Baseball Federation tournament. Birmingham and Detroit are yet in the running.

Little Pat, owned by the Biery Farms of Butler, made two new records in winning the $900 free-for-all-pace at Reading yesterday. The 9-year-old son of Hollyrood Bob turned in a 2:01¼ performance in the final heat to set a new world's mark for pacing geldings on a half-mile track. It also was the fastest three-heat race ever recorded for a half-mile track.

Cards Closer To N. L. Toga Bucs Top Bums

Pirate Setback Breaks Dodgers Hearts; Cards Rally, Win, 6-4

ST. LOUIS LEAD NOW THREE GAMES

By JACK MAHON
(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—This really belongs in the obituary columns.

For the pale-faced stranger with the little black bag, and even blacker hat, seen lurking outside the gates, has positively been identified as the coroner; the 1941 pennant has sagged past half mast and only the embalmer has failed to make an appearance at Ebbets Field to do a job on the corpse that was once the Brooklyn Dodgers, champions of the National League.

The latter gentleman cannot appear, officially, until a slight matter of mathematics has been established. But as far as the good (good and disgusted!) citizens of Flatbush are concerned today, he can hop a cab and rush right over to the complete burial arrangements of the Bums' hopes of taking home their second straight league championship.

Lot Broken Hearts

The borough of Brooklyn is a borough of broken hearts this afternoon for, just 24 hours ago, two final scores were posted that probably told about the final story of the 1942 pennant race. One read: Pittsburgh, 3, Brooklyn 2; the other, some miles away in Boston, read, St. Louis 6, Boston 4.

They were simply line-scores but between them even the most rabid Dodger rooter could discern the hand-writing that wrote his beloved Bums right out of this year's race.

That means, if St. Louis wins only four of their remaining contests, the Dodgers will have to win nine of their final ten to cop the flag. Considering the calibre of their opposition from here in, one game against the Giants, two with the Boston Braves and seven with the last-place Phillies, this would not be considered an impossible task for a fighting Brooklyn club.

But the players that left the field after dropping that 3 to 2 verdict to the Pirates yesterday, walked with the tread of the condemned. They didn't speak, they looked at the ground, not at each other, and it is a 1,000 to 1 that they can never recapture the spark and the fury that, just five weeks ago had them almost ten games in front of the self-same St. Louis club which might now run away with the pennant!

The Dodgers yesterday wasted nine men on the basepaths and a magnificent two hit relief pitching job by Max Macom to lose the game that probably cost them the flag.

St. Louis proved just the opposite. Held to three hits and trailing 3-1 for eight innings, the Cardinals got one little opening in the ninth at Boston and—like cattle through a hole in the corral fence—they poured over four runs for a 6 to 4 conquest of the Braves.

Yanks Win, 7-4

In the other games of the day the N. Y. Giants swamped the Cincinnati Reds, 11-1 and Chicago beat Philadelphia, 8-0 in the National League. Over in the American the Yankees trimmed Detroit, 7-4; Boston whipped St. Louis 5-1; Philadelphia nosed out Chicago 1-0 and Cleveland edged Washington 6 to 5 in eleven innings.

Fort Knox Coach

Joe Bach, above, former line coach at Duquesne and Notre Dame and a member of the Notre Dame team during the days of the famous "Four Horsemen," has been named as head coach at Fort Knox, Ky., the huge Army armored force headquarters base.

Lee Savold Evens Count With Musto

(International News Service)

DETROIT, Sept. 18.—Lee Savold, Des Moines, Ia., heavyweight, today had evened the score with Tony Musto, Chicago fighter, after winning a 10-round decision in Olympia last night before 5,000 fans who paid about $6,800 to watch the fracas.

Savold outboxed Musto in every round and in the final round sent the Chicagoan crashing to the canvas for the count of nine.

FAIR OR FOUL

By LAWTON CARVER
INS Sports Editor

By LAWTON CARVER
(International News Service Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—An angle on the world series that must be brought out, dusted off and presented at about this time each year has to do with the relative mental and physical condition of the two clubs as a result of the pennant races. The question almost invariably involved whenever the New York Yankees are in the so-called fall classic is whether they are in better shape for the post-season tussle than the opposition because the Yanks generally clinch their pennant early—as they did again this year—whereas the National League races goes right down to the wire as it threatens to do once again.

You can, with a little diligent searching, find astute gentlemen who will tell you that the National leaguers should be sharper because they roll into the series under the momentum that carried them to the league championship. But you also will encounter the others who insist that the Yanks' record proves a club is better for a little rest, a spell of coasting between pennant-clinching and opening of the series hostilities.

Yanks Long Priced

Thee Yankees in any case will be fairly long priced favorites over the Cardinals, and at still longer odds if the Dodgers happen to come through in spite of everything. The Yanks habitually in recent years sew up their pennant early and the world series pretty much the same way.

They haven't lost a series since 1926 when the Cards took them in seven games. Since then they have won eight. They have lost only three world series of the dozen they have played in, and have won five series in four straight games.

It is interesting to know, too, that the Yankees lost the first two world series they ever entered—in 1921 and 1922.

It will take just a few more figures to further prove the point, the figures in a general sort of way being that the Yanks won their league pennants in 1921, 1922 and 1926—their world series losing years—by comparatively small margins and through most of the rest of the time have won the pennant going away and the world series in a landslide.

If all that means anything, the Yankees have a fairly distinct edge as they go along now relaxed and carefree with nothing to bother them until September 30 when the first game will be played at St. Louis or Brooklyn.

Cards Tougher

Of the two National league clubs, the Cards seem to be the kind who are more likely to come roaring into the series despite the hard grind they may still face. Of course, if they should win that flag in the next few days they will be just that much tougher because of the rest they, too, will get.

The Cards are a hustling, tough club with a fine pitching staff, great staying powers, and some youngsters who will keep right on swinging. They don't know when they are whipped. The Dodgers possess some of those attributes, but possibly to lesser degree, and their veterans will get more weary as they go along.

The Yanks seem to be short of the pre-eminent class they sometimes have shown in the past. They may have to tussle all out to win this one. With the Cards in there it will be a decidedly tough series. It might be with the Dodgers, too. If they still can come through they will have proved their fortitude.

I like the Yanks to win the series regardless of the opposition.

Ellwood High Meets Farrell High Tonight

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 18—When the Ellwood and Farrell high school football teams clash at 8:15 o'clock tonight at Lincoln field, the two grid machines will be almost evenly matched in size and weight with the visitors having the edge in backfield brawn.

It's going to be a mighty tough game for the local machine and if they can make the hurdle they will have convinced their most severe critics they have what it takes.

Ellwood is in good physical condition for the contest, and Dudick, who has been nursing an injured ankle, is expected to get back into the line for at least part of the game. Croft will stick by the initial lineup save for Dudick being at left tackle in place of Wallace.

Since 1938 when Farrell held Ellwood to a contract forcing the locals to play two games in one week, the Wolverines have not met Farrell on the football field. It is recalled that the Croftmen gave Farrell a shellacking in that game. Farrell has Hank Day, former W. & J. mentor, at the helm, and he annually produces big ,strong teams. Farrell opened last Saturday by defeating Greenville, 6-0.

Ellwood scouts bring back the report that Adams, right end, and McCastro, center, are particularly to be watched in the line with the latter being an exceptionally good defense player. Their tackles are also big and tough. Jim Basilone and Hector Morocco alternate at fullback for the Mercer countians and the former, a 200-pounder, packs plenty of dynamite, indicating that the Wolverines will have a real battle on their hands. A win tonight will do much to bolster them for the really tough Beaver Valley games to come.

Officials for the game will be: James Mann, referee; Charles Waddington, umpire, and Joe Rider, linesman.

The lineups will be:

Farrell—Skenrovich, 78, left end; Skody, 85, left tackle; Bordy, 72, left guard; Nicastro, 26, center; Bencivengo, 33, right guard; Chiappianella, 41, right tackle; Adams, 43, right end; DeCapua, 44, quarterback; Trombacco, 35, right half; Zickar, 14, left half; Basilone, 82, fullback. Substitutes, Morocco and Cheeks.

Baptist Guild Convention Here Begins Tonight

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 18.—The annual convention of World Wide Guilds of Western Pennsylvania, will begin a two day session tonight at 7:45 in the First Baptist church, corner Third and Fountain avenue.

The Guilds are composed of young women whose interest is the missionary cause of the denomination. It is expected that over 225 delegates will be in attendance at the sessions.

The sessions will continue all day tomorrow and will close with a banquet in the evening. The closing service of the convention will be held Sunday morning at 9:45 and is to be a Communion and Consecration service at which time Miss Mary Beth Fulton, nationally known among Baptists, is to be the speaker; and the Communion service is to oe conducted by the pastor.

A large group of women of the local church together with other from the Providence Baptist and First Baptist, New Brighton, compose the committees and is headed by Mrs. Bernice G. Osterhouse. These women have been busy for weeks in preparation for the coming of the convention and it is hoped to make it outstanding in the lives of these young women. The sessions are open to the public.

EAGLES AUXILIARY

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 18.—The Eagles Auxiliary will be feted at a banquet on Monday night at 7 o'clock at the Seventh street hall by the Eagles lodge. George Reeher will have charge of the arrangements. All auxiliary members are invited and are to make reservations by Saturday evening with the president, Mrs. William Miller.

Baptist Society Has Fine Program

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 18—Group Four was in charge of the program for the September meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the First Baptist church last night.

The theme was young people in Baptist college and service men with the main talk being given by Mrs. David J. Jones. Mrs. Archie Murphy led the devotions and Mrs. H. C. Steinberger and Mrs. B. P. Osterhouse sang a solo. "Shall We Continue Missions?" was the topic of a reading by Miss Sarah Fisher. Other features were reports of the Grove City house party given by the delegates, Mrs. Howard Blinn and Miss Lylia Hazen.

Mrs. J. E. McDanel, vice president, conducted the meeting at which year books were distributed and the presentation of white cross work made.

A committee headed by Mrs. C. V. Rodgers served tempting refreshments.

King's Daughters Aids Medical Corps

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 18—Twenty-five members of the King's Daughters class answered the roll call with a Bible verse last night at the First U. P. church.

With Mrs. George Burrows as leader, Mrs. Edward Harbinson and Mrs. Carl Bauder took part in the devotions.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Olive Rhea, who is spending some time in Cleveland, Mrs. William Snowden was in charge of business with ten dollars being voted to the city medical corps.

Entertainment was directed by Mrs. Joseph Kaiser and Mrs. J. P. Moyer while refreshments were served by Mrs. Hugh Tomb, Mrs. C. J. Clark, Mrs. Herman Bauder and Mrs. H. E. McClymonds.

V. F. W. Drum Corps Meeting

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 18.—The V. F. W. Drum and Bugle Corps is meeting for a preliminary business session on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the Fourth street hall.

Joseph "Curly" Benezie is the new director and will be present to take up important matters with the Corps members.

The first practice will be held at the hall on Thursday evening, September 24 at 6:30 o'clock with a party to follow immediately.

Russell Sibole To Get Wings

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 18.—Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gallaugher, of 518 Spring avenue, have received word that their grandson, Russell Sibole, will receive his wings at Santa Ana, Calif., on Saturday, September 26.

The Gallaughers' daughter, Mrs. C. C. Ross, of Alexander, Va., and mother of the air cadet, left last night for California where she will attend the graduation ceremonies, and see the honor bestowed upon her son by the Arm Air Force.

BAPTIST CLASS AT KEUL HOME

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 18.—At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Steven Keul, Wiley Hill, members of the Young People's class of the Providence Baptist church were entertained last evening. Twelve members and one guest, Mrs. Russell Galvin, attended.

After devotions led by Rev. Paul Nye, the evening was spent informally with the hostess serving a tasty lunch.

On Saturday, October 17, the group will have a Hallowe'en party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hazen, Riverview.

Kenneth Young Honored By Group

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 28—Last evening members of the Fellowship Society of the First U. P. church gathered in the church for all All-American social with fifteen members and the counsellors, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Barrett, participating. Six members of the Pioneer society were welcomed.

The event was also in the form of a farewell for Kenneth Young, faithful member and past president, who will be inducted into the Army on September 21.

A variety of games was enjoyed under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Burrows after which appropriate refreshments were served.

Wurtemburg Women Have Annual Event

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 18—On Thursday members of the Women's Missionary society of the Wurtemburg U. P. church assembled at the church for their annual "dollar-day" dinner, which was most enjoyable.

Among the special guests were: Mrs. Roy Rutter, Mrs. Lester Dolter, Mrs. Jesse Daufen, Mrs. James Rapp, and Mrs. Lizzie McElwain.

At noon, a tempting tureen dinner was served by Mrs. Clifford Gibbons, Mrs. Lester Pander, Mrs. Ervin Dolter, and Mrs. William Huber, of the Mary Braeden Circle.

An informal program was enjoyed in the afternoon with Mrs. Charles Kettler and Mrs. Harry Fury in charge of entertainment. Awards for guessing contests went to Mrs. J. H. Newton and Miss Cora Cunningham. An interesting letter written by William Daufen, who is stationed with the U. S. Army in India, was read, as was the church honor roll of members in the service.

It was announced that Miss Louise Scott, returned missionary to India, will be the speaker for the annual Thank-Offering service to be held in November.

Small Registration For Night School

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 18.—First registrations for the night school classes offered by the Ellwood high school were taken last night and totalled 92.

Principal registrations were as follows: Shorthand, 26; typing, 24; English, 12; sewing, 24; and shop, 22. There were also a few listed under nutrition and gym.

Registration will again be taken at the high school on Monday night at 7 o'clock, with all classes being open.

Lutheran Class Meets For Outing

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 18—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bushman were hosts to members of the Martin Luther class of the Trinity Lutheran church at the Wallace cottage, Muddy Creek, last evening.

After a devotional period led by Mrs. Bushman and Rev. Daubenspeck, the sixteen members and seven guests enjoyed an informal evening which concluded with a wiener roast.

Another meeting will be held on Monday, October 12, at the home of Andrew Zekeli, Jr., Hazel avenue.

WAYNE L. T. L. MEETING HELD

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 18—Thirty members attended a meeting of the Wayne L. T. L. held on Thursday evening at the Wayne school with Mrs. Roy Meehan and Mrs. John Cunningham in charge.

Lois Weingartner led devotions and a demonstration on alcohol was given by Doris Houk of the Wayne Y. T. Council.

After the meeting, a refreshing lunch was served by Verna Crawford and Betty Newton.

Mary Lou Mayberry and Betty Anderson will be in charge of the social for the next meeting on October 1.

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 18.—Among the many enjoyable club and social meetings of Thursday afternoon and evening were:

Eight-At-Bridge

Miss Fern Belles was a special guest of the Eight-at-Bridge club when members were welcomed at the home of Mrs. Leyle Colmery, Foch street.

Awards for auction bridge went to Mrs. Carl Scnweinsburg and Mrs. Lyle Robinson. Mrs. Kenneth Bohlander aided in serving a tempting lunch.

In two weeks, the club meets with Mrs. Guy Haddix, Hazel avenue.

Just Us Club

Members of the Just Us club were entertained at 401 Fourth street last night by Mrs. Lola Wolfe.

High prizes for cards went to Mrs. Minnie Anderson and Mrs. Esther Bloom and for bingo to Mrs. Elizabeth Mackey and Mrs. Marie Miesel. The hostess served a delicious lunch before members departed to meet again on October 15.

Variety Club

At the home of Mrs. Ernest Reinheimer, Woodside avenue, members of the Variety club were received last night with Mrs. Raymond Brownstein being a special guest.

Mrs. Effie Dunkle and Mrs. K. K. Lauderdale won the awards for cards and the travel prize went to Mrs. Howard Young. The hostess was aided by Mrs. Paul Stasick in serving a tempting lunch.

Another meeting will be held in two weeks at the Lauderdale home, Crescent avenue.

Dessert-Bridge Club

Mrs. Robert T. Jones was a gracious hostess to members of the Dessert-bridge club at her home, in Park avenue.

After delicious refreshments, bridge was enjoyed with the attractive first prize going to Mrs. Stanley Smith and the guest favor to Mrs. Robert Jones, of Line avenue. Other guests were Mrs. Robert Miles and Mrs. Chester Weiss.

On Thursday, October 15, the group will be received by Mrs. Thomas Moorenead, Woodside avenue.

Progressive Club

Mrs. Lewis Bintrim was an agreeable hostess last night to members of the Progressive club at her home, in Park avenue.

Bridge was enjoyed with the first prizes going to Mrs. F. D. Powell and Mrs. Bintrim. The hostess served a tasty lunch.

Members were invited to meet in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Andrew Zekeli, Line avenu.

Hi Lo Club

Hi Lo club associates were welcomed at the home of Mrs. Loyal Romack, Line avenue.

For winning high scores in cards, the nice awards went to Mrs. Paul Shaffer, Mrs. F. T. Rodgers and Mrs. Charles Fitzsimmons, who aided in serving tasty refreshments.

The home of Mrs. Ted O'Hara, Ninth street, will be the next meeting place.

Rock Point Club

Sewing occupied Rock Point club members who gathered at the home of Mrs. John Gabler, Wampum road.

During the afternoon, the hostess served a tasty lunch with plans being made to meet again in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Fred Hahn, Wampum avenue.

Priscilla Kensington

With nine members attending, Priscilla Kensington club members enjoyed a delicious tureen dinner at Ewing Park. Mrs. Sparrow, of Orville, O., mother of Mrs. Walter Giffen, was a special guest.

Members were invited to meet again in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Thomas Douds, Pittsburgh Circle.

Mrs. Arthur Reese Honored At Dinner

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 18.—Mrs. Arthur Reese (Betty Robertson), whose marriage was a recent event, was pleasantly honored by associate office employees of the order department of the National Tube company last evening.

The event was in the form of a dinner at Zelienople attended by 22. A lovely electric gift was presented to the honor guest.

MATHENY P. T. A.

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 18.—The Matheny P. T. A. will meet at the Matheny school for the first regular meeting of the season on Friday evening, September 25.

ELLWOOD PERSONALS

Henry Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moore, First avenue, returned home this week to resume his studies as a junior at Geneva college. He spent the summer in Florida as a draftsman for the Baker Engineering company.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Kimpel of Ellport are vacationing this week in Michigan and other midwestern states.

Mrs. Floyd Thompson, Mrs. Yetta LeFever, Mrs. Clyde Burns, Mrs. Russell Anderson, Mrs. Bessie Houk, Mrs. Floyd Worrell, Mrs. L. A. Lightfritz, Mrs. Elmer Best, Mrs. Clarence Yahn and Mrs. Roy McDanel were among the local W. C. T. U. members who left on Thursday for Uniontown to attend the state convention. They will return home on Monday.

Minute Men Have Done Splendid Salvage Work

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 18.—The "Minute Men" who have done such a remarkable job of collecting scrap one half day a week for the past few weeks, turned in a fund of $85.50 profit through some of the loyal citizens donating their scrap. In a meeting today the "Minute Men" composed of Percy Wright, William Meiter, Gene Lebowitz and Leonard Miller, voted to split the scrap iron profits four ways. $21.38 was turned over to the local Civilian Defense Council; $21.38 to the United Service Drive to give the Ledger to the boys in the armed service; $21.37 to the U. S. O. and $21.37 to the local Chapter of the Red Cross.

Borough Manager, Lowell Monroe cooperated with the local "Minute Man" scrap drive by furnishing a truck and driver for the drive which in three trips netted 19 tons of scrap. This scrap was collected in the Pleasant Hill Grange Section and is not to be mixed with the house to house drive on in the city now.

The next project on for the local salvage committee is to collect all surplus discarded keys through the local school system. Each child in the community will be asked in the very near future to bring to school all brass, copper or steel keys that have no use at home and have been lying around for the past 10 years or more. The Salvage Committee will discuss this drive with Superintendent J. Ellis Bell within the next few days.

Ellwood Teachers Choose Officers

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 18.—The local branch of the P. S. E. A. met last night at the Ellwood high school for the annual organizational meeting.

New officers chosen were: President, Harold Burry; vice president, Charlotte Chambers; secretary, Helen Stonecipher; treasurer, Kenneth Zahnizer; delegate to the state P. S. E. A. convention at Harrisburg, Miss Elodia Barberio, and alternate, Miss Elizabeth McKnight.

The new executive committee will meet in a short time to plan an outing for the teachers.

PYTHIAN SISTERS ARRANGE DINNER

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 18.—At a largely attended, meeting of the Pythian Sisters lodge held last night at the bank hall, plans were made to have a tureen dinner for members and guests on Thursday, October 1.

A special feature of the evening was a shower of lovely miscellaneous gifts for Mrs. Fern McKinney Hall, a recent bride.

MATHENY 4-H CLUB

ELLWOOD CITY, Sept. 18.—The Matheny 4-H club entertained their parents and friends at a "doggie" roast last evening at the home of Goldie and Dorothy Jenkins, Wampum road. Games occupied the 25 attending after which the refreshments were enjoyed about a bonfire.

FROM ME TO YOU

By MESEEALL

A new idea was given birth last evening . . . A group of Farmers from the county representing the Bee Keepers, Fruit Growers, Potato Growers, Dairy Industry, 4H Clubs, Future Farmers Clubs, Granges and a Representative of the County Commissioners along with city representatives met at the Court House and organized for a little show. Since there has been no Fair this year the Group decided to call their show "The Lawrence County Farm Produce Show" . . . Free to the public and to be held in a central location here in New Castle sometime in November . . . probably just before Thanksgiving time. From where we sit it looks like a very interesting affair . . . Special displays of Farm Produce will be on nand . . . and a very complete Poultry Show will be staged. Yes, we are looking forward to this show. More information will be released as the time grows nearer . . . You know folks, Lawrence County is blessed with good progressive farmers.

* * *

It looks like it might be a wee bit damp for the football game this evening. But we hope that it is just the weather that is damp. We are lead to understand that some of the fans like to be a little damp during the game . . . and some become a little sloppy damp before the game is over. These people are not interested in the game . . . in fact they see very little of the game and their conduct keeps those who are really interested from following the plays. We can see no reason why a "bottle" should be present in the student section.

* * *

Here are a couple of numbers that you might call for FREE Dogs: Phone 1433-J . . . Fox terrier dog about one year old, fine around children.

Phone 8011-J4 . . . Just a dog, female about 9 months old. Good house dog and for kiddies.

* * *

Now that so many men are away and women are working in factories and stores . . . why wouldn't it be a good move for some responsible person to start a day nursery for the children of these working women. A small fee would probably do the job very nicely . . . Home help is rather difficult to get and then a day nursery would be doing a big job for All Out War Effort. Just an idea that someone might want to pick up and work out.

* * *

It pays to read the classified ad page daily . . . you will find something that you need and at a price that you can afford to pay. Don't miss them one day.

Clintonville Woman Is Killed In Crash

(International News Service)

FRANKLIN, Pa., Sept. 18.—Mrs. Gladys Sloan, wife of a Clintonville garage man, was killed almost instantly last night when her automobile skidded on Cherry Valley road in southern Venango county and she was thrown out of the machine, the coroner reported today.

The car left the highway and felled three utility poles. A domestic in the Sloan household, Pearl Baker, grabbed young Tommy Sloan, aged two, and held him tightly until the car stopped. Both escaped injury.

Stock Market Develops Rally

Some Of Leaders Advance As Much As Point During Morning

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—The stock market rallied today after a somewhat hesitant start. Gains generally were small, but a few leaders advanced as much as a point.

Steels were among the pacemakers. Bethlehem ran up 1⅜ points to 55, while U. S. Steel converted an initial loss of ¼ into a gain of almost a point.

Santa Fe advanced a half-point, but most other rails were held back by light profit-taking after yesterday's rally.

American Telephone and Philip Morris each gained about a point.

Fractional improvement was the rule for coppers, electrical equipments, mail orders, aviations, chemicals, oils and rubbers.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

The "mosquito" boat, officially known as the motor torpedo boat, has given a good account of itself in this war against the Axis. These boats are an important adjunct to our two-ocean navy. They achieve a speed of 50 to 60 miles an hour.

Gen. MacArthur used these boats in his dash from the Philippines to Australia. These little speed demons cost money, about $195,000 each. But you and your neighbor and your friends, each buying War Bonds at $18.75 each will build up a total to buy them. Buy War Bonds every pay day. Top the quota in your county.

COLORFAST FABRICS BEST FOR CHILDREN'S CLOTHING

Because children's clothes are frequent visitors of the washtub and the ironing board, they must be colorfast and as fully preshrunk as it is possible to buy them, according to Miss Ann Quinn, home economics extension representative, Lawrence county.

"It is advisable to buy the best quality of fabrics you can afford so that you will not need to replace the garments too often" says Miss Quinn. "Always look for colorfast and shrinkage facts on labels of either ready-made clothing or yard goods."

Good workmanship adds to both the quality and the durability of children's clothes, and it is a good plan to see that all buttons and other fastenings are kept secure.

One reason for the general unpopularity of made-over clothing is that the color or material is often unsuitable or unbecoming to children. Small boys and girls have their favorite colors and if at all possible try to please them. Gay colors are cheery.

WRINGER ROLLERS LAST LONGER WITH GOOD CARE

Now is the time to check on the way you use the wringer on your washing machine. Most wringer rolls are rubber and they must last as long as possible, reminds Miss Quinn, home economics extension representative, Lawrence county.

Before using the wringer, see that the pressure is evenly distributed, and avoid putting through too many clothes at one time. By folding buttons, buckles and other fastenings inside the clothing, cuts and bruises on the rubber rolls will be eliminated.

"When you are through using the wringer, release the pressure, and dry the rolls so they do not stick together. Because the heat and moisture cause the rolls to become soft and sticky, keep the washing machine in a cool dry place when it is not in use," urges Miss Quinn.

Oil and grease also are enemies of rubber so wipe off any that comes in contact with rubber parts on the washing machine.

RULES FOR HOMEMAKERS

September is the time for Lawrence county homemakers to:

1. Make an intensive study of good school lunches and pass their findings along to others who pack lunches.
2. See that each child in the family gets at least a quart of milk a day.
3. See that each child who goes to school is comfortably and suitably dressed.
4. Try serving cooked whole grain cereals, for they're economical and good to build and maintain healthy bodies.
5. Stop all unnecessary food wastes.
6. Check the fall wardrobe for each member of the family.
7. Serve fried chicken frequently for dinner.
8. Buy food and clothing wisely.
9. Use all left over foods in attractive and palatable dishes.
10. Read a good book.
11. Start the day right with a substantial and well planned breakfast, and see that every school child eats breakfast.
12. Serve peaches and apples often and in a variety of ways.

Police Intend To Arrest Speeders

Traffic Lieutenant James P. Steiner today asserted that he is having signs reading "25 miles an hour" placed in thoroughfares entering and leaving the city and woe to the motorist caught exceeding the 25 miles order.

"Motorists have been asked to cut down the speed of their cars. The President has recommended 35 miles an hour on highways. In our city we're making the rate 25 miles an hour and anyone caught exceeding that rate will be arrested" he said.
